on june 17 1966 the author s high school classmate m j savoy was killed in a military plane crash into the south china sea off the coast of vietnam the search for m j and his crewmates was unsuccessful and each has since been listed as killed in action body not recovered but what if m j did not really die in that crash what if it were staged for some reason body not recovered is inspired by and dedicated to m j savoy when 1964 university city graduate and teenage loner jr spears enlists to fight in vietnam for the noblest of reasons he begins a journey that takes him from committed warrior to reluctant soldier to underground antiwar leader confronted by a conflict they increasingly find abhorrent and unjust spears and a small cadre of comrades conspire with both commitment and foreboding to stage a helicopter crash fake their deaths and surreptitiously return to the states to join the protest movement these deserters are not the only ones who risk their lives and personal freedom or whose families are ravaged by the war when maggie blessing s brother is killed in action she runs away from home to join the antiwar movement leaving her mourning parents john muccelli spears s high school classmate fulfills his lifelong dream of becoming an fbi agent only to be conflicted by the illegal tactics he is ordered to use to hunt down protest instigators bernice story and so well told bear grylls honesty integrity and real experience that puts you in the thick of the action billy billingham there were three patrols that fateful january 1991 morning bravo one zero bravo two zero and bravo three zero it was the opening hours of the gulf war and the sas were flown deep behind enemy lines to hunt down saddam s scud missiles the use of which threatened a third world war the men of bravo one zero stepped off the chopper took one look at the flat desert devoid of any cover and decided no way were they deploying into all of that but andy mcnab s famed bravo two zero patrol did deploy with fatal results all bar one being captured or killed and then there was bravo three zero these men were different thought differently acted differently treating as gospel the sas s saying any fool can be uncomfortable they deployed with vehicles and while there was nowhere to hide they could make a dash for the border if desperate even as warnings came in that mcnab s patrol was on the run bravo three zero remained undetected the furthest coalition forces behind iraqi lines slipping through enemy positions a string of targets were taken out but with the desert turning bitter and snow starting to fall they were forced to fight a running battle against the elements as much as the enemy though overshadowed by the fate of bravo two zero the achievements of this highly decorated patrol are the stuff of elite forces legend now for the first time sas veteran des powell reveals their story in gritty blow by blow detail written with acclaimed military author experiences from birth to the present day it also concentrates thoroughly on defining the qualities desired of an sas military leader in terms of personal experiences of leadership i would say that the military provided me with a blueprint of acceptable leadership behaviours looking at the training i went through with special forces reveals some of the unique qualities that are required to fulfil this role i would say that conventional military regiments differed somewhat to the democratic even abdicratic approach of special forces units such as the sbs sas and 2rep french foreign legion while i was serving with the marines i wanted to transfer to a special forces unit but was refused entry to the organisation because of my commitment to the marines this was a great issue at the time but i eventually rejoined the sas regiment anyway after resigning from the marines my first period of sas training followed passing of the usual battle fitness test bft that was completed while at a barracks off the king s road in chelsea i can explain that my first thoughts about joining the sas occurred in 1976 when i was serving as a junior guardsman at pirbright in surrey the inspiration came from my platoon commander who had previously been a member of the guards independent parachute brigade this was a unit that largely preceded g squadron of the sas regiment later actions then included the iranian embassy incident under direction of the counter revolutionary warfare crw team and patrols in areas of northern ireland that were subject to violent terrorist actions i served also with 23 and 21 between 1985 and 1992 and the scots guards and french foreign legion experiences came early in my career eight members of the sas set off on the mission only one evaded capture this is his true story the sas mission conducted behind iraqi lines is one of the most famous true stories of courage and survival in modern warfare late on the evening of 24 january 1991 the patrol was compromised deep behind enemy lines in iraq a fierce firefight left the eight men miraculously unscathed but they were forced to run for their lives their aim was to reach the syrian border 120 kilometres to the north west but during the first night the patrol accidentally broke into two groups of five and three chris ryan found himself left with two companions nothing had prepared them for the vicious cold of the desert winter and after a blizzard and a desperate search for food chris ryan found himself the last man standing left on his own ryan narrowly escaped an iraqi attack and set out alone trying to reach
