with tables of the cases and principal matters varies the outsourcing of domestic work in the uk has been steadily rising since the 1970s but there has been little research which has considered white british women working as independent cleaning service providers a cross cultural analysis of two particular social contexts one within the uk and one within india based on new research argues that outsourced domestic cleaning can be undertaken either as work using mental and manual skills or as labour usually defined as unskilled natural women s work depending on the social context and working conditions the book challenges feminist dogma and popular myths about housework a history of artisan production in colonial and post independence india and its role in the country s society and economics when did categories such as a national space and economy acquire self evident meaning and a global reach why do nationalist movements demand a territorial fix between a particular space economy culture and people producing india mounts a formidable challenge to the entrenched practice of methodological nationalism that has accorded an exaggerated privilege to the nation state as a dominant unit of historical and political analysis manu goswami locates the origins and contradictions of indian nationalism in the convergence of the lived experience of colonial space the expansive logic of capital and interstate dynamics building on and critically extending subaltern and postcolonial perspectives her study shows how nineteenth century conceptions of india as a bounded national space and economy bequeathed an enduring tension between a universalistic political economy of nationhood and a nativist project that continues to haunt the present moment elegantly conceived and judiciously argued producing india will be invaluable to students of history political economy geography and asian studies no detailed description available for india in 1857 59 this book gives a comprehensive account of the history of the various buddhist synods councils which were held from time to time ever since the time of buddha through the present century due to the changing nature of the ideological philosophical and practical foundation of buddhism so well laid by lord buddha himself in the 6th century b c the book will be of much interest to the students researchers and general readers of the history of buddhism this book the second of two volumes continues the authors ground breaking re examination of india s history and political economy this volume describes the economic fortunes of india in the second half of the 20th century beginning with the reconstruction of the planning commission and india s hybrid model of economic planning the authors describe the multiple shocks weathered by the system before being replaced with a fully free market model after the collapse of the soviet union chapters consider the stresses placed on india s organisation by the shocks of the twentieth century from its experiments with a socialist economy to its embrace of the washington consensus in the 1980s the impact of the invasion of china in 1962 and india s struggle to find its feet post partition are also given detailed analysis the book s unique perspective helps to shed light for the first time on how india s organisational structure negotiated the country s immense historical and cultural inheritance with the stresses of a twentieth century nation state this book is about the legal regulation of caste discrimination it highlights the difficulty of capturing caste in international and domestic law and suggests solutions its aim is to contribute to the task of understanding how to secure effective legal protection from and prevention of discrimination on grounds of caste and why this is important and necessary it does this by examining the legal conceptualization and regulation of caste as a social category and as a ground of discrimination in international law and in two national jurisdictions india and the uk identifying their complexities strengths limitations and potential adopting a broadly chronological approach the book aims to present an account of the role of law in the construction of caste inequality and discrimination and the subsequent legal efforts to dismantle it the book will be of value to lawyers and non lawyers academics and students of human rights international law equalities and discrimination descent based and caste based discrimination minority rights and south asia and its diaspora it will be a resource for legal practitioners and those in the public and non governmental sectors involved in the implementation interpretation and enforcement of equality law in the uk the first european country to introduce the word caste into domestic equality legislation and in countries with south asian diasporas such as the usa the lost age of reason deals with a fascinating and rich episode in the history of philosophy one from which those who are interested in the nature of modernity and its global origins have a great deal to learn early modernity in india consists in the formation of a new philosophical self one which makes it possible meaningfully to conceive of oneself as engaging the ancient and the alien in conversation the ancient texts are now not thought of as authorities to which one must defer but regarded as the source of insight in the company of which one pursues the quest for truth this new attitude implies a change in the conception of one s duties towards the past after reconstructing the historical intellectual context in detail and developing a suitable methodological framework ganeri reviews work on the concept of knowledge the nature of evidence the self the nature of the categories mathematics realism and a new language for philosophy a study of early modern philosophy in india has much to teach us today about the nature of modernity as such about the reform of educational institutions and its relationship to creative research and about cosmopolitan identities in circumstances of globalisation cratons and fold belts of india is a unique attempt at presenting geological characteristics and evolution of the fold belts and the cratonic areas of the indian shield the author has evaluated the different evolutionary models for each fold belt in light of all the currently available geological and geochronological informations that are clearly listed shortcomings if any of each model are stated and a viable geodynamic model is presented for each fold belt the book is self contained it includes an introduction to the processes of mountain building especially plate tectonics theory with its application to the evolution of the himalaya as an illustrative example so that the reader can better appreciate the novel approach to the evolution of proterozoic fold belts the author eschews a detailed account of the fold belts for a
