Practical Newspaper Reporting 1997-08-13 this set includes all three books of the John Smyth mysteries series: Who's Grace, Desolation Highway, and Mountaintop Drive. In Who's Grace, James Coggins presents a fast-paced murder mystery with a twist: a Christian magazine editor named John Smyth witnesses a murder through the window of an airplane as it descends for a landing in Winnipeg, Canada. Neither the city police nor the RCMP mounties take his tip seriously until an unidentified woman's body turns up in some nearby woods two weeks later. The only clue to her identity is a necklace with a pendant bearing the name Grace. Who is she and where is her killer as the case twists and turns? Everyone involved gets to see clear evidence of the grace of God in Desolation Highway as two bodies are found in the forest near the Yellowhead Highway in northern British Columbia, prompting Sergeant Wesson and other members of the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to begin searching for a serial murderer. Suspects include a woodsman who makes wildlife sculptures using a chainsaw, an antisocial doctor, a strange woman engaged in occult practices, and a group of native youth addicted to gasoline sniffing. As more dismembered bodies turn up, John Smyth, editor of Grace magazine in Winnipeg, visits the area and starts putting pieces of the puzzle together. In Mountaintop Drive, it is just like a second honeymoon when diminutive editor John Smyth and his wife Ruby are invited to stay in a beautiful mountaintop house while attending a church convention in Canada's Bible Belt. Everything seems perfect until the woman next door is murdered. Has trouble from the impoverished streets of old Abbotsford invaded the upscale community of Mountaintop Drive?

The Game (2022-05-09) features possessed dogs, missing livestock, cloaked figures, and CJ Delaney's summer vacation just got really weird when a boring old skatepark opening becomes the scene of a something truly strange. CJ Delaney can't believe her luck: this is just the kind of big story she's dreamed of breaking for the town's local paper with best friend Parker in tow. CJ is determined to get to the bottom of everything and save the town from evil. Isn't this what summer vacation is for? But when all answers point to someone close, CJ stands not only to lose her byline but the scariest thing of all: the people and pet she loves. With a strong snappy voice and a warm sense of humor, the supernatural files of CJ Delaney is a fast-paced middle grade mystery with just the right amount of hair raising thrills that begs to be read cover to cover in one sitting this debut from carol williams shines with love for its characters college town setting and belief in the power of the written word executed one of the largest savings and loans frauds in United States history. Keating had long used the courts to muzzle critical reporting of his business dealings but aggressive reporting by a small trade paper called the National Thrift News helped bring down Keating and offered an inspiring example of business journalism that speaks truth to power. Rob Wells tells the story through the work of Stan Strachan, a veteran financial journalist who uncovered Keating's misdeeds and links to a group of US senators, the Keating Five, who bullied regulators on his behalf. Editorial decisions at the National Thrift News angered advertisers and readers but the newsroom sold ownership on the idea of investigative reporting as a commercial opportunity. Examining the National Thrift News's approach, Wells calls for a new era of business reporting that can and must embrace its potential as a watchdog safeguarding the interests of the public.

Another Amy (Replica #3) 2008-06-09 in the 1980s real estate developer and banker charles h keating

Women and Media 2019-11-18 In the very early morning hours, what appears to be a purple automobile streaks down Plainview's main street. A brief glimpse of it is shown on the evening TV news, but what it is and where it came from is a mystery. Angie Inkster, a scriveness, decides to solve the mystery so she can use it as her news story entry in a contest sponsored by a nearby metropolitan newspaper. If Angie's story is selected as the winning entry, she will be named as the newspaper's junior reporter. Acting like an investigative reporter, she unravels the mystery. To do so, she becomes involved in a fantastic adventure. Her story about it wins much more than the contest. For almost immediately after its submission, it is used as a big story on the first page of the morning Herald. All sorts of exciting things then happen involving her family, her best school friend, and her new friend, the eccentric inventor of what the purple automobile really was. Suitable for ages nine to fourteen.

Seymour Mann's stories and poetry are always inventive and unique. His background is both diverse and wide as a teacher, scholar, and a practitioner in governmental affairs and labor relations. In all his writing, he draws on these experiences in a way that is enriched by his fertile imagination and certainly that is exhibited in this story. I highly recommend it and I salute Seymour for the achievement it represents.
