this religious anthology will nourish the pastor's heart, soul, and mind; it's a treasure for devotional reflection as well as a support for the task at hand. James W. Crawford, pastor of Old South Church, Boston, under the editorial guidance of Professor Cox, whose sensitivity to parish needs is incomparable, the Ministers Manual has achieved a long-standing reputation for its wide variety of quality material for pulpit and worship use. Donald MacLeod Francis I. Patton, professor emeritus, Princeton Theological Seminary, the Ministers Manual is the single most comprehensive resource for preaching and worship available, filled with completely new material for 1999. Unlike other preaching annuals that simply outline sermons, the Ministers Manual provides complete sermons for the entire calendar year. This nondenominational guide offers you both topical and lectionary sermons and supplements these with two alternative sermon outlines for every Sunday. You can engage the minds of your youngest parishioners by drawing from the fifty-two children's sermons and stories, and there are thoughtful sermon illustrations and messages for seasonal celebrations. In addition, the Ministers Manual will help you prepare sermons and prayers for such occasions as communion, funeral services, and Memorial Day. Along with all this, the Ministers Manual gives you additional features not found in other preaching manuals: it provides three valuable worship aids with every sermon, useful for expanding your Sunday service; you can also enrich your preaching by drawing from the more than one hundred thought-provoking quotations and questions on life and religion. Further, this expansive reference offers topics for small group discussions and resources for evangelism and world missions, and the seven indexes put all of this valuable information at your fingertips. The Ministers Manual is truly unequalled. In its 77th year, the Minister's Manual is the single most comprehensive resource for preaching and worship available, filled with completely new material for 2002. This nondenominational guide is the best source for sermons, prayers, insights, and inspiration for all, from pastors and lay leaders to Sunday school teachers and choir directors. Turn to the Minister's Manual for complete sermons for the entire year, featuring both topical and lectionary preaching and worship aids to expand Sunday service; thought-provoking quotations and questions on life and religion to add breadth to your message; children's sermons for engaging young minds; and a wealth of topics to ponder during small group discussions. Calendars to help you remember important historical, cultural, and religious anniversaries, and much more. To compare the extensive features of the Minister's Manual with those in the Abingdon Preaching Annual and the Zondervan Pastor's Annual, click here: the single most comprehensive resource for preaching and worship. Students, teachers, Bible study leaders, but especially preachers, will discover a treasure trove here. Search and mine it for new perspectives on old stories, fresh biblical insights into current issues, ways of seeing outside the box. You'll find yourself nourished and strengthened. Rev. Dr. James W. Crawford, minister emeritus, Old South Church, Boston, Massachusetts: no other compilation offers more comprehensive resources to assist the parish minister in planning every aspect of weekly worship. William E. Hull, research professor, Samford University, Birmingham, Alabama: for more than eighty years, the Minister's Manual has been the standard by which all other preaching annuals are measured. The book's research-based content and searchable CD-ROM make this non-denominational resource even more helpful to today's busy pastor. The 2010 Minister's Manual is the comprehensive and traditional resource pastors have come to rely on, filled with practical features. This new edition is designed to be user-friendly, and the handy CD-ROM makes the book's material easily accessible. Turn to the Minister's Manual for complete sermons for the entire year, lectionary messages, and worship aids to expand Sunday services; feature articles on preaching, parables, faithful worship, and the creative art of homiletics that speak to the hearts and minds of ministers; a treasury of practical, contemporary, and relevant sermons; a diverse group of contributors; a broad and contemporary range of illustrations; and new and expanded preaching resources: children's sermons based on the lectionary texts for engaging young minds; musical suggestions based on the lectionary texts for each week of the year; calendars of important historical, cultural, and religious anniversaries; eloquent and useful messages for holidays, funerals, and bereavement; communions and missions. A free searchable CD-ROM of the entire contents can be used to extract, edit, and print selections for sermons, bulletins, and other messages. A look at the nature, officers, doctrines, ordinances, government, discipline, and duties of a Baptist church organization. In its 75th year, the Minister's Manual is the single most comprehensive resource for preaching and worship available, filled with completely new material for 2000. This nondenominational guide is the best source for sermons, prayers, insights, and inspiration for all, from pastors and lay leaders to Sunday school teachers and choir directors. Totally redesigned, the 2000 edition's larger format makes it easier to use than ever. Also restored is the treasury of illustrations, providing you with practical sermon applications and commentary. I don't know of a better book for the hard-pressed minister than the Minister's Manual, the best material on the market. John Killinger, president, Mission for Biblical Literacy, author, Preaching the New Millennium, suggestions for performing the various tasks.
