her relationship with religion at the time of her death l engle was mourned by fans of her children s books and the larger christian community l engle s books as well as her life were often marked by contradictions a consummate storyteller l engle carefully crafted and performed a public self image via her interviews weaving through the documentable facts in these interviews are partial lies misdirections and wish fulfillment fantasies but when read against her fictions these truths can help us see l engle more deeply what she wanted for herself and for her children what she believed about good and evil and what she thought was the right way and the wrong way to be a family than if she had been able to articulate the truth more directly the thirteen interviews collected here
