from stand-up comedian, actress, and host of the Netflix afterparty London Hughes comes an uplifting and raucously funny memoir to show you how to ditch the self-loathing, start the self-love, and engage with your inner winner. London Hughes has come a long way from secretly writing Frasier fan fiction alone in her bedroom between her breakout Netflix comedy special to catch a dick her dating podcast London actually and her award-winning TV performances. London, the South Londoner, has taken the entertainment world by storm and now in this sassy, brash, fearless, and funny memoir London is ready to inspire women of all ages and races with her story because London is absolutely the best person in the whole wide world to take you on a wild journey of self-discovery as she herself puts it: I've always been funny, I've always been cute, I've always been confident, I was born to do this shit all her life. London longed to be a badass, an awesome bullet-proof woman who nobody could mess with. At a young age she made sure she was ready to become a star, developing her own living room popstar training regimen to prepare for her future life. But London also had her fair share of disastrous experiences in terms of friendships, relationships, and career choices. Each of the fiascos in London's life has, with hindsight, proved to be a formative life lesson and helped her grow into the fearless person she is today you'll definitely be grateful these setbacks happened to her and not you but you'll also learn that however bad things get you can always build your self worth think long term and emerge triumphant no matter what the world throws at you from starring in a school sex education video called swings and roundabouts to being gushed over by a fan while standing next to the renee zellweger london leaves no stone unturned in living my best life hun it took london some time to find her voice and her people but now that she has she's mentally high fiving her 14 year old self every day
