Amazing Mom Book 2005 as various contemporary groups use the language of motherhood to advance their political causes maternal rhetoric has become very visible in the american political discourse of late yet while it has long been recognized that women have invoked their political status as mothers to organize and authorize their political action in the past scholars have only just begun to examine the recent reemergence of this frame this book describes the wide variety of political causes that mothers are organizing to address and analyses whether ideologically conservative organizations are disproportionately represented among groups using motherhood to mobilize women stavrianos examines the use of maternal discourses in closer detail through a comparative case study of five groups using motherhood as their primary frame for collective political action mothers against drunk driving million mom march mothers against illegal aliens mainstreet moms organize or bust and mothers in charge scholars interested in women and politics interest group politics social movements political behavior women s studies motherhood studies and framing strategies will find this book noteworthy as it adds to a growing body of literature exploring the use of motherhood as an emerging political frame and to the interdisciplinary discussion of contemporary discourses of motherhood

Touching Raw Nerves 2004 kids learn early on that moms offer relief comfort food money and are easier to train than a pet a tear here a pouty lip there and suddenly they ve got mom badgering dad about the car their allowance the prom or the volleyball coach harry harrison jr set out on a quest to better understand motherhood he interviewed many many moms in order to discover exactly what it means to be a mom he stopped at 1001

1001 Things it Means to Be a Mom 2008-03-18 parents aaaaargh jemma s are out of date they still think she should wear the hand knitted jumper with little bears on it to school and they call her petal in public laura s are divorced gone is the lovely big house now it is a grotty little one and her mum was seen kissing melvyn outside tesco sumitha s want her to keep their cultural traditions which don t include boys make up or a trendy hair cut jon s keep bragging about his academic brilliance but in reality it s not stellar nor is it where his heart is chelsea s mum is a writer of ghastly features for the local paper an agony aunt and a wearer of mini skirts the five teenagers paths and those of their mortifyingly embarrassing parents cross and part throughout this hilarious book set in leehampton

The Political Uses of Motherhood in America 2014-11-13 american mothers are household cfos in charge of an estimated 2.45 trillion in direct spending they are also an important influence on other family members buying habits many organizations have identified moms as an important customer group but the broad age based definitions these companies work with mask an array of different consumer behaviors written by two leading marketers this book provides a new approach to understanding the american mom market examining the effect of age of the eldest child on women s values and attitudes to food exercise education health technology and fashion the authors examine the mom s influence on or control of the purchasing habits of children of all ages from infants and toddlers to young adults in doing so it brings focus to the frequently overlooked purchase influence of moms on teenagers the authors combine large scale quantitative research of more than 4,700 mothers with qualitative case studies from individual participants the authors also draw on decades of real world experience to combine their research with implementable examples of best practice highly recommended for practitioners in retailing and product development this book will also be a valuable supplemental text for college courses in consumer behavior and marketing strategy

1001 Things it Means to Be a Mom 2011 from the opening essay the bloomsbury group live at the apollo liner notes from the new best selling album to the title piece that discusses ways in which you might begin a romance with your mother in today s fast moving transient rootless society where people meet and make love and part without ever really touching the relationship every guy already has with his own mother is too valuable to ignore to a parody that features samuel beckett as a pilot giving an existential in flight speech to the passengers the twenty five comic essays in this delightful collection are nothing short of brilliant ian frazier long considered one of our most treasured humorists proves that comedy can be just as smart as it is entertaining

Just Don't Make a Scene, Mum! 2006-01-01 for a long time opinion has varied on the role of children when a loved parent granny relative or friend is dying has died there are those who exclude the child from knowledge of impending death and the funeral arguing that it is all too distressing for a child while others maintain that children want to be involved and can make decisions quite young when my husband died we gave the grandchildren the choice it was the youngest two who agreed straight away but mary 11 hesitated and then said i don t want to go but if i don t i will never forgive myself all three were glad to have gone and said their goodbyes brian not only believed that children are well able to be involved in the process of death he was prepared to test it with a research project that involved not adults but children who had had a parent die this book records that research its problems and results i have known and worked with brian for many years his work is meticulous for he is dedicated to the theme having been a clergyman and seen the many sides of dying and the way it is handled by families who themselves are often dealing with the unknown and their own fears of death and dying this book is a must for all who have contact with children parents teachers those in social services and all who need reassurance on the resilience of children who yes have many ways of coping but what they all want from their grownups is honesty openness involvement and love ann faulkner retired professor of communication in health care
