GIVING TO GOD AND TO MEN 2007-10-05 you can make a difference on a daily basis and it s not as difficult as you might think simple giving includes more than 40 ideas to make the world a better place most people think they have to donate a lot of time and money in order to make a difference but there are simple ways to integrate giving into our personal and professional lives that don t involve either in simple giving jennifer iacovelli shows us how to make giving a part of our daily routines it can involve something as simple as holding the door open for a stranger or paying someone else s toll which will brighten that person s day we can also think about ways to make sustainability and social good a part of our business models after working in the nonprofit sector and soliciting and coordinating donations for ten years iacovelli became frustrated with the disconnect between givers and receivers givers or potential givers didn t realize how much of an impact they could make while recipients couldn t thank the organization enough in simple giving iacovelli inspires us with the stories of how people ranging from moms to social entrepreneurs are giving back in creative ways by being more mindful of how our actions impact others and taking steps toward positive change we also live happier and more fulfilled lives

A Letter to a Friend; giving a concise, but just, account, according to the advices hitherto received, of the Ohio-Defeat ... To which is added, some general account of the New-England forces, etc. [Signed: T. W., i.e. Charles Chauncy.] 2006-07-20 the past decade has seen a flowering of philanthropic activities across many parts of africa unlike before this flowering has the distinct character of african agency energy and engagement philanthropy is no longer about narratives of passive poor and miserable africans receiving help from rich fortunate and often western outsiders the emerging narratives about philanthropy in africa are about an increasingly confident and knowledgeable assertion of african capacities to give not only to help but also to transform and seek to address the root causes of injustice want ignorance and disease the narratives are also about the increasing questioning of the role and place of africans in the world s philanthropic traditions and what constitutes african specificities but also african differences and varieties this book is about african philanthropic experiences their varieties challenges and opportunities it is about documenting investigating describing questioning and reflecting on philanthropy in africa because africa is not a monolithic entity with one single history cultural political and economic experience this ground breaking book rightly tackles the varied modes forms vehicles and means in which the philanthropic experiences are expressed in africa it is a pioneering and ambitious effort in a field and community of practice that is new both in terms of scholarship and in professional practice many of the chapters boldly engage the burden of reflections questions ambivalences and ambiguities that one often finds in an emerging field innovatively positing the outlines concepts frameworks and theories of scholarship and practice for a field critical to development on the continent

2007-05-22 baby safe haven laws which allow a parent to relinquish a newborn baby legally and anonymously at a specified institutional location such as a hospital or fire station were established in every state between 1999 and 2009 promoted during a time of heated public debate over policies on abortion sex education teen pregnancy adoption welfare immigrant reproduction and child abuse safe haven laws were passed by the majority of states with little contest these laws were thought to offer a solution to the consequences of unwanted pregnancies mothers would no longer be burdened with children they could not care for and newborn babies would no longer be abandoned in dumpsters yet while these laws are well meaning they inadequately address the social injustices that compel abandonment for the very small number of girls and women who abandon their newborns advocates of safe haven laws target teenagers women of color and poor women in particular with safe haven information under the assumption that they cannot offer good homes for their children laury oaks argues that the labeling of certain kinds of women as potential bad mothers who should consider anonymously giving up their newborns for adoption into a loving home should best be understood as an issue of reproductive justice safe haven discourses promote narrow images of who deserves to be a mother and reflect restrictive views on how we should treat women experiencing an unplanned pregnancy
