the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) Hebrew ארגון הציונות האמריקאית is an American nonprofit pro-Israel organization founded in 1897 as the Federation of American Zionists. It was the first official Zionist organization in the United States. Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) U.S. Organization of General Zionists in 1898. Richard Gottheil, who attended the Zionist Congress in Europe, called a New York conference which formed the Federation of American Zionists. The World Zionist Organization Hebrew ארגון הציונות העולמי Hahistadrut Hatzionit Ha'Olamit or WZO is a non-governmental organization that promotes Zionism. The Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) founded in 1897 was one of the first official Zionist organizations in the United States and especially early in the 20th century the primary representative of American Jews to the World Zionist Organization. espousing primarily political Zionism. The Zionist Organization of America Convention June 1921 in Cleveland was a turning point in American Zionist history with the leadership of the ZOA changing from Louis Brandeis to a group led by Louis Lipsky and Emanuel Neuman that supported the European ideological Zionism of Chaim Weizman. America's most memorable Zionist leaders Louis Brandeis, above left, and Henrietta Szold, above right, became role models for American Jews. Says Professor Jonathan D. Sarna, "The individual in history essays in honor of Jehuda Reinharz, the question of what makes a successful Jewish leader has many answers, none of them simple. Jewish support for Zionism became nearly universal during and after World War II, and Jewish volunteer fighters and financial contributions played a key role in Israel's victory in the 1948 war. Zionist historiography was pioneered by activists and became a scholarly enterprise only in the 1960s. The Zionist Congress later to become the World Zionist Congress was held at intervals of 1 year (1897, 1901) then 2 years (1903, 1939) until the outbreak of the Second World War with an eight-year break (1913, 1921) due to the First World War. Jewish organization also known as ZOA. Learn about this topic in these articles: Founding by Wise in Stephen Samuel Wise. Year he helped found the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) of which he served as president in 1936-38. He also helped found and led the Permanent American Jewish Congress and the World Jewish Congress (1936). However, the history of Zionism began earlier and is intertwined with Jewish history and Judaism. The organizations of Hovevei Zion (Lovers of Zion) held as the forerunners of modern Zionist ideals were responsible for the creation of 20 Jewish towns in Palestine between 1870 and 1897. The World Zionist Organization (founded 1897) was regarded as the de facto Jewish agency stipulated in the Mandate, although its president Chaim Weizmann remained in London close to the British government. The Polish-born emigré David Ben-Gurion became the leader of a standing executive in Palestine throughout the failure of the first sporadic effort to implant a Zionist settler community in Palestine during the first fifteen years of Zionist colonization (1882-1897). Prompted serious reappraisal and radical revision of the strategy. JTA: Hundreds of Jews from around the world have traveled to Basel, Switzerland, to mark the 125th anniversary of a historic gathering of Zionists there. Although there is an abundant literature on the formation of the Yishuv, the Jewish community in Palestine, little attention has been paid to Zionism's technocratic elite and its use of European colonial models in formulating strategies for Jewish nation building in Palestine. In this article, I will consider the Zionist discourse of race between the Nazis' ascension to power in 1933 and the disintegration of Jewish organizations and public activities in Germany in the wake of the November 1938 pogrom.
