paul the antichrist when a christian hears this statement they will immediately respond who in their right mind could ever think such a terrible thing of st paul through our history many have questioned the writings of st paul and questioned his authority to speak for jesus seeing how he never met him or heard him teach what distinguishes jesus teaching is that he taught and practiced the jewish torah and taught his disciples about a narrow road and a narrow gate that very few would find in order to have eternal life by denying themselves and taking up their cross and following him in contrast paul taught his gentile disciples that the torah was abolished by jesus and that broad was the road and wide was the gate that led to salvation and many would enter and be saved by following him paul we are confronted here with two distinct gospels one that the apostles of jesus received directly from him and another new gospel that paul claims to have received by a private revelation from jesus himself one the gospel of grace which today many people believe and many follow and the other the gospel of the kingdom which very few have received and have followed
