Reports of the Tax Court of the United States 1984 painting has often been declared dead since the 1960s and yet it refuses to die even the status and continued legitimacy of the medium has been repeatedly placed in question as such painting has had to continually redefine its own parameters and re negotiate for itself a critical position within a broader more discursive set of discourses taking the american clement greenberg s modernist painting as a point of departure after modernist painting will be both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 50 years presenting the first critical account of painting rather than art generally this book provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium craig staff focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to conceptual art and minimalism the pronouncement of paintings alleged death its response to installation art s foregrounding of site how it was able to interpret ideas around appropriation simulation and hybridity and how today painting can be understood as both imaging and imagining the digital after modernist painting is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice

Hubert Humphrey 1990 the national endowment for the arts is often accused of embodying a liberal agenda within the american government in federalizing the muse donna binkiewicz assesses the leadership and goals of presidents kennedy through carter as well as congress and the national council on the arts drawing a picture of the major players who created national arts policy using presidential papers nea and national archives materials and numerous interviews with policy makers binkiewicz refutes persisting beliefs in arts funding as part of a liberal agenda by arguing that the nea s origins in the cold war era colored arts policy with a distinctly moderate undertone binkiewicz s study of visual arts grants reveals that nea officials promoted a modernist abstract aesthetic specifically because they believed such a style would best showcase american achievement and freedom this initially led them to neglect many contemporary art forms they feared could be perceived as politically problematic such as pop feminist and ethnic arts the agency was not able to balance its funding across a variety of art forms before facing serious budget cutbacks binkiewicz s analysis brings important historical perspective to the perennial debates about american art policy and sheds light on provocative political and cultural issues in postwar america

Final Environmental Impact Statement 1957 given by eugene edge iii

Arte Come Arte 1988 this book examines the terms upon which painting in the united states sought to negotiate with the legacy of american formalist aesthetics and by extension the understanding of modernist painting it had become most readily associated with in so doing a separate set of possibilities for painting gradually began to emerge the salient debates and practices that collectively worked to establish such a response are approached through the philosopher gianni vattimo s idea of pensiero debole or so called weak thought to this end the proposed study both identifies and seeks to examine a type of weak painting which like vattimo s idea took as its critical point of departure the exhaustion but not the vanishing of the project of modernism the belief in reason progress history the nation state etc craig staff explores particular instances wherein artists sought to extend the parameters of the object beyond what had been called into question namely the proclivity for modernist painting s strength to be understood as denoting amongst other things a perceived set of universal essences this book will be of interest to scholars working in art history fine art cultural studies critical theory curatorial studies and philosophy

Final Supplement to the Environmental Impact Statement for an Amendment to the Pacific Northwest Regional Guide:

Appendices 1880 baudelaire s famous description of the best criticism as entertaining and poetic not coldly analytic lives in the essays of peter schjeldahl schjeldahl self consciously continues the modern tradition of art criticism crafted by poet critics providing a sharp perspective on individual artists their work art world events and new creative directions he challenges established views and his infectious passion for art continually engages the reader in essays on rothko munch warhol dubuffet nauman sherman salle de kooning guston ruscha and koons schjeldahl skillfully juggles theory and analysis in exploring cultural context and technique his writings free of the contortions of some critical prose and characterized by a sustained focus on works of art map the contemporary art scene in new york with occasional forays to los angeles and elsewhere cataloguing the colorful personalities cultural attractions and ethical hazards of the art world it s a fast fun trip with arguments that fold back upon themselves in surprising revelations and reversals of the author s opinion there is never a dull moment for those with an eye on contemporary art
