Three Stories of Fear and Madness

2006-10-01

Three Stories of Fear and Madness is a collection of three short stories by Paul E. Hardisty. The stories are 'The Evolution of Fear', 'Our Seas of Fear and Love', and 'The Vigilante Justice Seeker Claymore Straker'. The book is a fast-paced action thriller with a deep knowledge of the settings and a non-stop action with distant echoes of a more moral minded Jack Reacher or Jason Bourne. Maxim Jakubowski remarkably well written and sophisticated literary review a fast paced action thriller beautifully written Tim Marshall author of Prisoners of Geography Claymore Straker is a fugitive with a price on his head wanted by the CIA for acts of terrorism he did not commit his best friend has just been murdered and Rania the woman he loves has disappeared betrayed by those closest to him he must flee the sanctuary of his safe house in Cornwall and track her down as his pursuers close in Clay follows Rania to Istanbul and then to Cyprus where he is drawn into a violent struggle between the Russian Mafia Greek Cypriot extremists and Turkish developers cashing in on the tourism boom as the island of love descends into chaos and the horrific truth is unveiled Clay must call on every ounce of skill and endurance to save Rania and put an end to the unimaginable destruction being wrought in the name of profit gripping exhilarating and above all frighteningly realistic The Evolution of Fear is a startling eye opening read that demands the question how much is truth and how much is fiction praise for Paul E. Hardisty a stormer of a thriller vividly written utterly topical totally gripping Peter James just occasionally a book comes along to restore your faith in a genre and Paul Hardisty's the abrupt physics of dying does this in spades the Times trenchant and engaging Stav Sherez Catholic Herald a solid meaty thriller Hardisty is a fine writer and Straker is a great lead character Lee Child laces the thrills and spills with enough moral indignation to give the book heft excellent Jake Kerridge Telegraph fast paced and cleverly written this novel has bestseller written all over it West Australian exceptional beautifully written blisteringly authentic heart stoppingly tense and unusually moving definite award material Paul Johnston a forceful novel by a writer not afraid of weighty issues Maxim Jakubowski searing at times achieves the level of genuine poetry Publishers Weekly starred review a page turning adventure that grabs you from the first page and won't let go Edward Wilson to be human is to experience fear but what is it exactly that makes us fearful here is one geographer s striking exploration of our landscapes of fear as they change throughout our lives and have changed throughout history yi fu tuan investigates landscapes of the natural environment which are threatening and landscapes filled with the dark imageries of the mind fears of drought flood famine and disease shared by all members of a community and fears of the particular ghosts which haunt the individual imagination in this lucidly written ground breaking survey professor tuan delves into many cultures and reaches back into our prehistory to discover what is universal and what is particular in our inheritance of fear starting with fear in animals he raises and explores a variety of questions what is specifically human about fear is there or has there ever been a fearless society professor tuan examines the most specific forms fear takes in the mind of the child among hunters and agriculturists inside the walls of a medieval chinese city among navaho indians and american immigrants he explores the ways in which authorities create landscapes of terror to instill fear in their own populations and he probes that most basic of all contradictions between the need for human security and the fear of human nature professor tuan particularly emphasizes how in coping with fears of enemies strangers the insane wolves wind witches mountains dragons rain or the terror that the universe itself might crumble humans respond adventurously by creating shelters ranging from fairy tales to cosmological myths we watch as human beings continually draw and redraw their circles of safety never feeling entirely at peace within them

The Source of Fear 1968

THE ANATOMY OF FEAR: A MORTAL MIND UNABRIDGED 2013-12

the tropes of fear horror and terror have come to play a dominant role the analysis of contemporary social life the predominance of fear as the frame through which we narrativize experience can be perceived readily echoing across various fields from theoretical research to the mass media to the quotidian despite the commonly held view that fear is a primitive and universal affect its definition potential value and perceived effects vary wildly in each instance from literary theory to psychoanalysis to politics to philosophy this collection of research attempts to both flesh out these tropes and to complexify them individually the essays reflect a diversity of approaches to the constellation fear horror and terror taken as a whole they produce the ground for an analysis of the dominance of fear

one of the very first books to take stephen king seriously landscape of fear originally published in 1988 reveals the source of king s horror in the sociopolitical anxieties of the post vietnam post watergate era in this groundbreaking study tony magistrale shows how king s fiction transcends the escapism typical of its genre to tap into our deepest cultural fears that the government we have installed through the democratic process is not only corrupt but actively pursuing our destruction that our technologies have progressed to the point at which the individual has now become expendable and that our fundamental social institutions school marriage workplace and the church have beneath their veneers of respectability evolved into perverse manifestations of narcissism greed and violence tracing king s moralist vision to the likes of twain hawthorne and melville landscape of fear establishes the place of this popular writer within the grand tradition of american literature like his literary forbears king gives us characters that have the capacity to make ethical choices in an imperfect often evil world yet he inscribes that conflict within unmistakably modern settings from the industrial nightmare of graveyard shift to the breakdown of the domestic sphere in the shining from the techno horrors of the stand to the religious fanaticism and adolescent cruelty depicted in carrie magistrale charts the contours of king s fictional landscape in its first decade
