amedeo had a horror of tin trunks they usually gave such small tips having examined the luggage he sent a searching glance to two rows of heads which were visible inside the vehicle the brawny porters hurried out the luggage chute was placed in position the omnibus door was opened and the first traveler stepped forth a german of the most economical type large red and wary with a mouth like a buttoned up pocket was followed by a broad waisted wife with dragged hair and a looped up gown about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works and the loss of a ramrod or two it was never once damaged or disabled a breech loader might have done as well but i cannot quite admit it as an established fact until i have better evidence adduced than i am in possession of at present get youk gun case made 157 if you use a gun case by all means have it made of strong leather such as trunks are constructed of wooden cases or such as are covered with black
