the eighteenth century is recognized as a complex period of dramatic epistemic shifts that would have profound effects on the modern world paradoxically the art of the era continues to be a relatively neglected field within art history while women's private lives their involvement with cultural production the project of enlightenment and the public sphere have been the subjects of ground breaking historical and literary studies in recent decades women's engagement with the arts remains one of the richest and most under explored areas for scholarly investigation this collection of new essays by specialist authors addresses women's activities as patrons and as patronized artists over the course of the century it provides a much needed examination with admirable breadth and variety of women's artistic production and patronage during the eighteenth century by opening up the specific problems and conflicts inherent in women's artistic involvements from the perspective of what was at stake for the eighteenth century women themselves it also acts as a corrective to the generalizing and stereotyping about the prominence of those women which is too often present in current day literature some essays are concerned with how women's involvement in the arts allowed them to fashion identities for themselves whether national political religious intellectual artistic or gender based and how such self fashioning in turn enabled them to negotiate or intervene in the public domains of culture and politics where the woman question was so hotly debated other essays examine how men's patronage of women also served as a vehicle for self fashioning for both artist and sponsor artists and patrons discussed include carriera queen lovisa ulrike and chardin the bourbon princesses mlle clermont mme adélaïde and nattier the duchess of osuna and goya marie antoinette and vigée lebrun labille guiard queen carolina of naples prince stanislaus poniatowski of poland and kauffman david and his students mesdames benoist lavoisier and mongez peter sahlins s brilliant new book reveals the remarkable and understudied animal moment in and around 1668 in which authors including la fontaine whose fables appeared in that year anatomists painters sculptors and especially the young louis xiv turned their attention to nonhuman beings at the center of the year of the animal was the royal menagerie in the gardens of versailles dominated by exotic and graceful birds in the remarkable unfolding of his original and sophisticated argument sahlins shows how the animal bodies of the menagerie and others such as the dogs and lambs of the first xenotransfusion experiments were critical to a dramatic rethinking of governance nature and the human the animals of 1668 helped to shift an entire worldview in france what sahlins calls renaissance humanimalism toward more modern expressions of classical naturalism and mechanism in the wake of 1668 came the debasement of animals and the strengthening of human animality including in descartes s animal machine highly contested during the year of the animal at the same time louis xiv and his intellectual servants used the animals of versailles to develop and then to transform the symbolic language of french absolutism louis xiv came to adopt a model of sovereignty after 1668 where his absolute authority is represented in manifold ways with the bodies of animals and justified by the bestial nature of his human subjects 1668 the year of the animal in france explores and reproduces the king s animal collections in printed text weaving poetry and engraving all seen from a unique interdisciplinary perspective sahlins brings the animals of 1668 together and to life as he observes them critically in their native habitats within the animal palace itself by louis le vau the paintings and tapestries of charles le brun the garden installations of andré le nôtre the literary work of charles perrault and the natural history of his brother claudes the poetry of madeleine de scudéry the philosophy of rené descartes the engravings of sébastien leclerc the trans fusion experiments of jean denis and others the author joins the non human and human agents of 1668 panthers and painters swans and scientists weasels and weavers in a learned and sophisticated treatment that will engage scholars and students of early modern france and europe and readers broadly interested in the subject of animals in human history
