Henry M. Beach was a prolific and accomplished upstate New York photographer who documented the North Country during the first quarter of the twentieth century although much less known and celebrated Beach's work is as important to the twentieth century Adirondacks as Seneca Ray Stoddard's is to the nineteenth century. Illustrated with over 250 examples of his work including ten panoramic foldouts, this book covers the range of Beach's subject matter. Robert Bogdan's lively and accessible approach to the photographer's work encourages the reader to explore the North Country's people and places through Beach's photography and life. Although Beach's postcard pictures and other photographs were taken to sell in bulk to hotel managers, tourist shop owners, and other retail merchants, they are not just mass-produced stylized pretty pictures. Beside the bubbling brooks and shady woodland paths are factory boomtowns and paper mills belching pollution as the rails brought increasing numbers of middle class tourists to the Adirondacks. The wealthy created their own exclusive wilderness playground. Beach photographed dandy visitors at play as well as manual laborers sweating in the forest logging camps, factories, mines, and construction sites. Images of great camps sit next to modest abodes, small stores, and family owned resorts. Pictures of trains in scenic surroundings give way to mangled wrecks after tragic railroad accidents. In addition to standard view cards, he produced montages and advertisement postcards, serious visual commentary as well as lighthearted picture play. Beach's best works stir the heart and provoke the imagination, and his whimsical down to earth approach to photography produced images that are a treat to the eye.

This book examines the Texas based company's heavy equipment that has been used in the mining, construction, and oil industries from the 1920s to present. Two hundred photos illustrate the fascinating tales behind Letourneau breakthroughs like the first electric diesel front end loader. Founder Robert Gilmour Letourneau is regarded as the father of high volume earthmoving equipment and holds more U.S. patents than any other person save Thomas Edison. Fans of heavy equipment are sure to enjoy this profile of the manufacturer of the world's largest front end loaders.

Located in the area where North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee meet, Pond Mountain rises to over 4,000 feet. In its valley, it holds the Pond Mountain community, a small area in Ashe County, North Carolina. Most of the families that live in the valley have been there for generations, farming the land. Here 31 Pond Mountain residents reflect on their childhoods, families, neighbors, customs, and traditions, and the changes that have come to their mountain communities. What emerges is a unique look at a way of life that is rapidly being lost to history.
