after a miraculous escape from the german military juggernaut in the small belgian town of mons in 1914 the first major battle that the british expeditionary force would face in the first world war the british really believed that they were on the side of the angels indeed after 1916 the number of spiritualist societies in the united kingdom almost doubled from 158 to 309 as arthur conan doyle explained the deaths occurring in almost every family in the land brought a sudden and concentrated interest in the life after death people not only asked the question if a man die shall he live again but they eagerly sought to know if communication was possible with the dear ones they had lost from the angel of mons to the popular boom in spiritualism as the horrors of industrialised warfare reaped their terrible harvest the paranormal and its use in propaganda was one of the key aspects of the first world war angels in the trenches takes us from defining moments such as the angel of mons on the front line to spirit communication on the home front often involving the great and the good of the period such as aristocrat dame edith lyttelton founder of the war refugees committee and the physicist sir oliver lodge principal of birmingham university we see here people at every level of society struggling to come to terms with the ferocity and terror of the war and their own losses soldiers looking for miracles on the battlefield parents searching for lost sons in the séance room it is a human story of people forced to look beyond the apparent certainties of the everyday and this book follows them on that journey

Angels of War will have only one chance to defeat the army of Hell in a fierce showdown to protect the gates of Heaven. Wanting to start the apocalypse Lucifer sends his greatest general, Temeculus, to Earth. The general's mission is to open the gates of Hell and unleash Satan with his full powers, unbeknownst to the Dark Lord. However, the Archangel Michael has awakened a sleeping angel, one who swore an oath eons ago to guard the back gate into Hell and protect all humanity if the need arose. Enter Joan, a mortal who is about to understand her true purpose. She must face a dark secret from her heavenly past. Join her as she leads a band of angels to fight General Temeculus and his black army, outnumbered and short on time. The angels must create and train an army of human soldiers they have called the Guardians. They will have only one chance, one final fierce showdown to defeat the army of Hell, protect the gates, and prevent the apocalypse and the destruction of everything.

The history of medicine in the United States military. Author, journalist, and USS Midway Museum spokesman Scott McLaughlin reveals the riveting stories of the men and women who save lives on the front lines in Battlefield Angels, the first book about battlefield medicine in the US military told from the point of view of the unsung heroes who slide into bomb craters and climb into blazing ships. This unique look at medicine in the trenches traces the history of the military medical corps and the contributions it has made to America's health. For example, how the military medical corps pioneered the ambulance concept, emergency medevac helicopters, hospital designs, and contagious disease prevention. McLaughlin also details how the military medical corps has adopted medical science discoveries, field tested them in battle, adapted them, and proved their value.

i appreciate the absurdity nay the enormity of the position in all its grossness and my excuse for these pages must be this that though the story itself is nothing it has yet had such odd and unforeseen consequences and adventures that the tale of them may possess some interest and then again there are certain psychological morals to be drawn from the whole matter of the tale and its sequel of rumours and discussions that are not i think devoid of consequence and so to begin at the beginning i conceived the dead men coming up through the flames and in the flames and being welcomed in the eternal tavern with songs and flowing cups and everlasting mirth but every man is the child of his age however much he may hate it and our popular religion has long determined that jollity is wicked as far as i can make out modern protestantism believes that heaven is something like evensong in an english cathedral the service by stainer and the dean preaching for those opposed to dogma of any kind even the mildest i suppose it is held that a course of ethical lectures will be arranged well i have long maintained that on the whole the average church considered as a house of preaching is a much more poisonous place than the average tavern still as i say one s age masters one and clouds and bewilders the intelligence and the real story of the soldiers rest with its sonus epulantium in aeterno convivio was ruined at the moment of its birth and it was some time later that the actual story got written we are born into a natural world and all of our senses through our eyes nose ears skin and mouth are constantly gathering data for our existence at some point in time out of sheer curiosity we as human beings desire to know more about the supernatural world i believe our creator desires that we know more about the supernatural than we ourselves desire to know god has provided a way for us to know more and when the hunger increases for more knowledge of the unknown our spiritual eyes are opened angels are watching over us we need to recognize the ministry of angels and realize angels did not go out with the new testament we cannot believe any further than we have knowledge to believe the angels are spirits sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation this ministry of angels is still a very valid ministry today they still convey messages to the earth they are created beings for the service of the lord on behalf of his people these are celestial heavenly beings created for spirit to earth intervention god created the angels for his purpose only angels are numerous according to the book of daniel chapter 7 10 the number of angels runs into the countless millions ten thousand times ten thousand is 100 million in the book of revelations chapter 5 11 there are references to billions of angels angels are holy sinless beings with unlimited strength and power angels can be visible to the human eye angels can travel faster than the speed of light and can be wherever god needs them to be the ministry of angels is part of the salvation package and it is very much god s will for his people to understand and know the awesome kingdom provisions available to the believer when our words choices life goals decisions and plans line up with god s will plan and purpose for our lives the preprogrammed angels hear see and respond to our needs and do what they have been assigned to do by god we do not pray to or for angels we pray to god in the name of jesus and god responds by sending angels to carry out his plan and will for our lives it is his will and good pleasure to protect and take care of his children with the help of angels they are sent for the aid and protection of god s people thank you to everyone who buys this book which gives me the opportunity to share with the readers some of the ways i have encountered angels in my life i have found that when my words choices life goals decisions and plans line up with god s will plan and purpose for my life the preprogrammed angels hear see and respond to me as i confess to jesus in word and deed before men confessions are made about me before the angels angels harken to the voice of the lord and when we speak the word of god we are voicing his words and the angels are released to bring to pass what the word of god declares speaking the word of god is one way to release angels to work on our behalf
