this book is the result of a three day conference held in april 2014 at the university of montreal canada discussing the relevance of the work of hegel and marx in today s world particularly with regard to the ecological economic political and anthropological crisis facing humanity accordingly the book an exploration of the specific nature of the crisis we face both in our everyday lives and in the realm of theory however if indeed the necessity of a proper critique kritikos is intimately linked to a state of crisis krisis the conceptual frame necessary to produce such a critique may itself be in crisis among the vast number of critical oppositions to contemporary capitalism what are the keys available to understand the present forms of human conditions alienation and exploitation controversies and divisions among the different tendencies within the critical tradition tend to highlight the point that there is also a theoretical crisis which prevents a proper diagnosis of the actual crisis and prevents in turn a proper plan of action from being established looking back to marx and hegel allowed a return if not to the sources at least to two unavoidable influences among the various critical approaches to capitalism be it with or against hegel and or marx the criticisms of modernity post modernity and capitalism cannot neglect the shadows of these thinkers both marx s and hegel s philosophical sociological and political enterprises must be linked historically to the will to diagnose and solve what they saw as the most important crises of their own time from in hegel s case the spiritual crisis which followed the advent of modernity and its accompanying turmoil to the social and political crisis caused by capitalism and the advent of a new industrial society in marx s case both intellectual ventures are at every turn haunted by the notion of crisis this book will appeal to anyone interested in hegel s and marx s philosophical and political theories not only does it provide the historical context necessary to understand properly the relation between marx and hegel but it also places the relevance of their teachings for the contemporary reader in perspective dionne brand s in another place not here jhumpa lahiri s the namesake and carolyn see s there will never be another you engage with the physical ideological and socially constructed real and imagined spaces of colonialism justice diaspora and risk building on a range of theoretical approaches to the production of space this study argues for the significance of literature as a cartographic practice charting the intricacies of the socio spatiality of human life through rigorous readings this book examines each novel as a critical map that both represents and explores contested spaces and alternative spatial negotiations these spatially oriented literary analyses contribute to recent conceptualizations of space as socially and relationally produced open
