this book presents the very first interdisciplinarily grounded comprehensive appraisal of a future common european law on investment screening thereby it provides a foundation for a european administrative law framework for investment screening by setting out viable solutions and evaluating their pros and cons daimler the harbour terminal in zeebrugge or saxo bank are only three recent examples of controversially discussed company takeovers in europe the elephant in the room is china and its belt and road initiative the political will in europe is growing to more actively control investments flowing into the eu the current regulatory initiatives raise several fundamental constitutional and regulatory issues surprisingly they have not been addressed in any depth so far the book takes stock of the current rather fragmented regulatory approaches and combines contributions from leading international academics practitioners and policy makers in their respective fields due to the volume s comprehensive approach it is expected to influence the broader debate on the eu s upcoming regulation of this matter the book is addressed to participants from academia as well as to representatives from government business and civil society
