Midterm 2019-03-13

by all accounts 1994 represents sweeping electoral and policy change rarely seen in any american election let alone a midterm this book puts 1994 in context with other significant midterm elections from 1810 to the present it also captures the very contemporary concerns unique to 1994 the role of the religious right the angry white male t

Electing a Mega-Mayor 2021-06-29

electing a mega mayor represents the first ever comprehensive survey based examination of a canadian mayoral race and provides a unique detailed account of the 2014 mayoral election in toronto after making the case that local elections deserve more attention from scholars of political behaviour this book offers readers an understanding of toronto politics at the time of the 2014 election and presents relevant background on the major candidates it considers the importance that torontonians attached to policy concerns and identifies the bases of support for the outgoing scandal ridden mayor rob ford and his brother doug in the penultimate chapter the authors examine how torontonians viewed their elected officials and the city s performance two years after the election mcgregor moore and stephenson conclude with a reflection on what the analysis of the toronto 2014 election says about voters in large cities in general and provide a short epilogue addressing the 2018 election results written in an accessible style this is the first book on the politics of toronto during the ford era that focuses on the perspective of the voter

A Midterm Assessment of Implementation of the Decadal Survey on Life and Physical Sciences Research at NASA 2018-06-09

the 2011 national research council decadal survey on biological and physical sciences in space recapturing a future for space exploration life and physical sciences research for a new era was written during a critical period in the evolution of science in support of space exploration the research agenda in space life and physical sciences had been significantly descoped during the programmatic adjustments of the vision for space exploration in 2005 and this occurred in the same era as the international space station iss assembly was nearing completion in 2011 out of that period of change recapturing a future for space exploration presented a cogent argument for the critical need for space life and physical sciences both for enabling and expanding the exploration capabilities of nasa as well as for contributing unique science in many fields that can be enabled by access to the spaceflight environment since the 2011 publication of the decadal survey nasa has seen tremendous change including the retirement of the space shuttle program and the maturation of the iss nasa formation of the division of space life and physical sciences research and applications provided renewed focus on the research of the decadal survey nasa has modestly regrown some of the budget of space life and physical sciences within the agency and engaged the u s science community outside nasa to join in this research in addition nasa has collaborated with the international space science community this midterm assessment reviews nasa s progress since the 2011 decadal survey in order to evaluate the high priority research identified in the decadal survey in light of future human mars exploration it makes recommendations on science priorities specifically those priorities that best enable deep space exploration
