presents a program for using positive peer pressure to reach out to friends and build supportive relationships make more worry less everyone wants to do that but how and how can you do it within the organization where most people will spend their entire working lives this book has the answers no academic theory here make more worry less brings together 18 riveting stories from people who ve achieved both of these goals gaining surprising wealth and real peace of mind along the way these aren t superheroes they re ordinary people who ve done the extraordinary from fast food worker linda robb now earning a six figure income at aflac to once lowly telemarketer steve hudson now running business development at one of the most promising start up companies in the nation author and radio host wes moss reveals the powerful lessons these individuals have learned better yet he shows how you can use those lessons to your ownership of your life and career earning more money than you ever thought possible but that's only half the equation. Moss also shows how to handle your increased success with less stress, fewer worries, and greater happiness. Every single story in this book is accompanied by specific tips, tricks, steps to take, and mistakes to avoid—actionable information you can use right now if you want to change your life. Start right here: harness what you have, find it, create it, or tweak what you have. Underestimate your obstacles, stop wasting time thinking about what you can't do, notice your network, and make the most of it: earning friendships, building alliances, finding mentors. Take the first step today; you know what to do. Learn how to get past whatever's stopping you. This is the story about a fictitious donut factory where all they do is make donuts. The production manager, a curious fellow with an even currier name, Mr. Sales Manager, is in charge of collecting the donuts and taking them to his regional manager, who then passes them on to the factory owner. One day, Sales Manager's boss came to him with a direct order: "Sales, you have to make more donuts." In fact, they wanted Sales to make twice as many donuts without adding staff or any other support. Sound familiar? Well, like most people, Sales Manager was stressed about how this was going to happen, but like a good soldier, he went to work trying to make it happen, but nothing worked. Until one day, a savior arrived with a different approach to making more donuts. This is the story of that stranger and how his unique and simple ideas transformed the life of one sales manager and helped him achieve his goals. Perhaps you know a sales manager in your life who could use the same ideas to create more dough. Are you tired of struggling to make ends meet?
