draws heavily on the personal diaries of the subject robert hichens or hitch as he was universally known after a brief description of his early life time at oxford his motor racing achievements including trophies at le mans in his aston martin and rn training the book focuses on his exceptional wartime experiences hitch was the most highly decorated rnvr officer of the war with two dsos three dsos and three mentions in despatches he was recommended for a posthumous vc we read of his early days in vulnerable minesweepers and the dunkirk dynamo operation his first dsc in late 1940 he joined coastal forces serving in the very fast mgbs soon earning his own command and shortly after command of his flotilla he was the first to capture an e boat his successful leadership led to many more successes and his reputation as a fearless and dynamic leader remains a legend today the book contains detailed and graphic accounts of running battles against the more heavily armed e boats tragically he was killed in action in april 1943 having refused promotion and a job ashore a british officer s day to day observations throw interesting light on life and soldiering during the second world war the nymas review anthony barne started his diary in august 1939 as a young recently married captain in the royal dragoons stationed in palestine he wrote an entry for every day of the war often with great difficulty sometimes when dog tired or under fire sometimes when things looked dark and desperate but more often in sunshine and optimism surrounded by good fellows who kept one cheerful and helped one through the sad and difficult times his diary ends in july 1945 by which time he was commanding officer of the 4th hussars having recently visited downing street for lunch alone with the churchills the diaries have an enormous scope covering time in palestine and egypt before he joins the eighth army describing the retreat back to el alamein the battle and its aftermath he ends the campaign commanding his regiment he often graphically details the physical realities of war the appalling conditions in the desert the bombardments of the regiment from the air the deaths and serious injuries of fellow soldiers in 1943 he flies down to rhodesia to see his wife and infant son before returning to cairo to join churchill s regiment the 4th hussars arriving in italy in 1944 he recounts the campaign as the allies push north with a tone that varies wildly often witty sometimes outrageous but also poignant and philosophical this is not just a memoir of war but a in the summer of 2016 retired broadcaster paul ashton made an astounding discovery at a car boot sale in sussex he found a copy of sherlock holmes s practical handbook of bee culture and bought it for 2 no other copy of this legendary volume the only book holmes wrote has ever come to light the handbook is the journal kept by holmes from 1904 to 1912 1904 was the year he retired from active investigation and moved to a farmhouse in east dean in 1912 he came out of retirement and left east dean in order to outwit the german spy network in britain on the eve of world war i the journal is of course principally the record of his bee keeping activities but holmes has also included a wealth of astonishing information some of it highly indiscreet about the following his marriage to mrs hudson their social life in sussex his meetings with lenin pablo picasso edward vii rudyard kipling george bernard shaw and sigmund freud among other distinguished figures two investigations that he carried out even though officially retired two attempts that were made on his life his involvement in the jack the ripper murders the dr crippen affair the theft of the mona lisa and the siege of sidney street his correspondence with some of the famous scientists of the day his active support of the suffragette movement the regular updating of his casebooks of famous criminals of the nineteenth century a number of photographs some taken by him and four actually showing him the steady deterioration of his health over the period both the owner of the handbook and the publisher are honoured to be able to make this unique treasure available to the general public your friend is innocent but can you prove it the second book in the much loved cora baxter mysteries series from the acclaimed broadcaster usa today bestseller and bestselling author of the perfect couple and am i guilty when investigative journalist cora baxter is awoken in the middle of the night and called to the scene of a murder she s devastated to discover the victim is someone she knows and very quickly things go from bad to worse when the investigation team reluctantly led by cora s boyfriend dci adam bradberry charge cora s best friend and colleague samantha tindall with the murder convinced of her friend s innocence cora and her camera crew find themselves following a trail of clues that leads them all the way to new york but with only weeks to go until the trial time is of the essence can cora uncover the truth in time to secure samantha s freedom or is it already too late previously published as the deadline readers love jackie kabler s cora baxter mysteries grabs hold of you and wont let you go amazon review i could not put the book down and sat up one night to read the ending amazon review my only problem with this book was that it had an ending goodreads review i could have continued reading forever goodreads review this book is just fabulous and worthy of all the stars from me i can t recommend the cora baxter series highly enough
