the right people the worldos attention turned to the u s capitol on january 20 2009 when barack obama took the presidential oath of office but inside the building changes had already taken place that would have broad implications for his agenda the 111th congress had convened on january 6 with a far stronger democratic majority than the one that had preceded it their ambitious legislative agenda requires the assistance of their staffs to prepare them for all the important issues on the legislative table thus it is more important than ever to know about senior congressional committee staff members and the role they play in shaping todayos legislation while members of the house of representatives and the senate enact laws it is often their staffers who exert the greatest influence in the lawmaking process staffers advise their elected bosses establish political positions on issues craft legislation put policies in place and play important roles on scores of congressional committees the next time you need to find out who is the most effective person to advocate your cause d turn to the insiders guide for all the answers overall it provides access to an important if not very visible component of the legislative process recommended choice the insiders guide to key committee staff of the u s congress contains in depth profiles on key congressional staff members that you will not find elsewhere the information provided on these personnel gives you not only the contact information and other pertinent data but also the inside track to those people these are the staffers who work with and support the representatives and senators in various important roles that help to enact change or refine existing laws and codes that govern our nation with all the sweeping changes youore looking for and information on his or her individual impact on legislation and decision making with this insiders guide youoll never again need to question who is the most effective person to advocate your cause this book explores the adapting process of the general agreement on trade in services gats to a constantly changing trade and policy context the adoption of the general agreement on trade in services gats a multilateral agreement with stand alone rules and principles for the governance of trade and investment in services represented a watershed in the history of global trade governance over three decades after the drafting of the agreement wto members struggle to deliver on the gats mandate to achieve progressively higher levels of trade liberalisation in a radically different trade and policy landscape against this background this book examines the contribution of the wto negotiating adjudicative and deliberative functions to adapting the gats to changing circumstances the book uncovers an extremely flexible and adaptable agreement whose full potential has yet to be realised due to a complex set of factors weighing more broadly on the use of the wto functions the book distils the factors at play that constrain wto members capacity to adapt the agreement to changing circumstances and explores potential pathways to overcome them the book will be of interest to scholars policy makers and trade diplomats interested in understanding the factors and processes conditioning the adaptation of a multilateral trade agreement to changing trade and policy circumstances recent years have seen the rise of eu state aid law as a crucial component of the european economic constitution to date however the literature has neglected the contribution of this area of eu law to the internal market this book seeks to fill this gap in our understanding of the economic constitution by exploring the significance of state aid law in addressing questions that go to the core of the internal market project it does so by examining the case law relating to three different activities that member states engage in market participation market regulation and funding for services of general economic interest each of these areas offers insights into fundamental questions surrounding the economic constitution such as the separation between the state and the market the scope for member states to engage in regulatory competition and the tension between market and nonmarket concerns private law archival snapshot of entire looseleaf code of massachusetts regulations held by the social law library of massachusetts as of january 2020 equality and discrimination law in australia an introduction adopts a groundbreaking approach in its delivery of equality and discrimination law principles it analyses equality as a goal of the law and acknowledges that to prevent discrimination modern laws must challenge the beliefs practices systems and structures that enable it the code of federal regulations is international arbitration rules has been inspired by its sister publications comparison of asian international arbitration rules and comparison of international arbitration rules which were prepared by simpson thacher bartlett llp and published by juris publishing in 2003 and 2008 respectively this volume sets forth the main arbitration rules and regulations available in the middle east region and provides a basis of comparison on their efficiency and cost effectiveness due to the great number of arbitration institutions that have been forming across the middle east over the past couple of decades the present overview is confined to the most commonly used sets of rules in the gulf region the arbitration rules of the 2007 dubai international arbitration centre the diac arbitration rules the 2008 arbitration rules of the dubai international financial centre london court of international arbitration the difc lcia arbitration rules the 1993 arbitration regulations of the abu dhabi commercial conciliation and arbitration centre the addcac rules the 2006 arbitration rules of the qatar international centre for commercial arbitration the qicca arbitration rules the 1994 arbitration rules of the gulf cooperation council gcc commercial arbitration centre the gcc arbitration rules and the 2009 arbitration rules of the american arbitration association bahrain chamber for dispute resolution the aaa bcdr arbitration rules due to their increasing prominence for ad hoc arbitration in the region the 2005 arbitration rules of the qatar financial centre the qfc arbitration rules and the 1976 arbitration rules of the united nations commission on international trade law uncitral the uncitral rules including recent 2010 revisions are included full sets of these rules are appended to the comparative chart that makes up the core of this publication there is also a comparative table on costs and fees to give the reader a clear idea of filing administrative and arbitrators costs under the various arbitration rules the comparative entries in the chart on parallel provisions of the various sets of arbitration rules follows a logical self explanatory sequence mapping the course of an arbitration from the commencement of the proceedings to the issuance of the final award the first two headline entries on the arbitration clause and the arbitral institution are meant to provide relevant framework information and to assist the client in swiftly identifying the standard wording of an arbitration clause under the relevant rules to avoid any debilitating pathologies in the famous midnight drafting process of commercial contracts as well as the main services and functions provided by the arbitration institution concerned the arrangement of the information and data provided in the various entries is meant to facilitate consultation of the rules on particular comparative aspects which we hope is further assisted by the detailed table of contents contained at the very beginning of the volume this book shows students entering the public service as well as professionals in the field how to become ethically competent to provide the leadership needed to advance the public interest the book doesn't just talk about ethics the contributors describe how ethical competence should guide organizational conduct all chapters are original and written by experts in the
