from the intro this account which is intended to describe the country as it stood previously to the war with the british commencing in the end of the year 1814 is derived chiefly from the following sources in the first place during the years 1802 and 1803 i passed fourteen months in the country mostly in the vicinity of kathmandu the capital and i was accompanied by ramajai batacharji an intelligent brahman from calcutta whom i employed to obtain information so far as i prudently could without alarming a jealous government or giving offence to the resident under whose authority i was acting in the next place assisted by the same person i passed two years on the frontier collecting information both from the company s subjects and from numerous refugees and travellers from the dominions of gorkha the following are the persons to whose information i am chiefly indebted the account of sikim is chiefly taken from a lama or priest of buddha who with part of his flock had fled into the district of puraniya to escape from the violence of the gorkhalese and who constructed a map of the country which i have deposited in the company s library besides the lama i consulted many of the natives of the company s territory who had visited the lower parts of sikim and several of the gorkhalese and other people of nepal and mr smith of nathpur favoured me with several particulars collected by a mr pagan for the information of government inthe final gripping volume of jan guillou sboundary breaking crusades trilogy exiled warrior arnde gotha returns home to sweden determined to
