political and religious landscape of western europe between the tenth and thirteenth centuries power and faith explores the origins of dominant nation sates and religious institutions in the west emerged out of the fractured and fragmented post carolingian world as a foundational text for those new to the period the book offers a clear chronological framework for understanding and analysing the emerging polities of western europe and an examination of the influence of the papacy and the crusades across christian life and culture mixed with careful consideration of major social and economic themes including urbanisation rural revolution and the role of women in politics religion and society the book gives a uniquely comprehensive overview of political and religious developments in western europe during a neglected yet fundamentally significant period the book is divided into six parts part one sets out the scope and aims of the book and discusses the sources used parts two and six provide overviews of the political and religious states of affairs in europe at the start and end of the period respectively framed by these sections the book is divided into three chronologically ordered parts each containing three chapters the first offers a brief account of the main historiography of the period concerned the second provides a thorough account and analysis of the main political developments across europe during it and the third explores the main religious changes power and faith is an essential introductory guide for students and researchers interested in politics religion and society in western europe during the middle ages many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive we are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork reprint of the original first published in 1868 a number of public enterprise pe executives have long felt the need for a book which would provide necessary information and analysis of various dimensions of pe management and privatisation the book provides at one place a precise and authoritative account of the concept policy and analysis of major issues confronting pes public ownership per se does not make pe performance sub optimal the operation of the government system of which pe is a sub system has not been conducive to performance during the last six decades inadequate political will and vested interests have come in the way of freeing pes from excessive and throttling controls and demoralising accountability not letting the managers manage with the freedom required in the liberalised and globalised set up is the problem the multifarious and complex managerial problems of pes which get compounded by faltering moves towards privatisation cannot be wished away these have been considered in the book at some length the book first published in 1980 continues to be a standard work on the subject this latest edition has been revised by dr r k mishra director institute of public enterprise hyderabad this book examines the historical development of the blessing of waters and its theology in the east with an emphasis on the byzantine tradition exploring how eastern christians have sought these waters as a source of healing purification and communion with god denysenko unpacks their euchology and ritual context the history and theology of the blessing of waters on epiphany is informative for contemporary theologians historians pastors and students offering important insights into how christians renew baptism in receiving the blessed waters this book also proposes new perspectives for theologizing christian stewardship of ecology in the modern era based on a patristic liturgical synthesis denysenko presents an alternative framework for understanding the activity of the trinity enabling readers to
