geographers examine the effects of cinematic representation of place and space on perceptions of self and societies in the world the karakoram highway was constructed by the pakistani state in the 1970s as a major development project that furthered the national interest and solidified state control over the disputed region of northern pakistan focusing on this highway this book provides a unique analysis of the links between space travel and history in the formation of the pakistani nation state the book discusses how the highway was a symbol for an imagined national identity and goes on to look at how it offered pakistan a pre partition history and a fixed territory by providing a historical link to the silk route and a contemporary geographical linkage to central asia examining the influence of the diverse travellers along the karakoram highway the book shows how global flows of development trade labour and tourism have remapped the pakistani nation state and reshaped the local providing a fresh perspective on the nation state of pakistan this book is an important contribution to studies on south asian history anthropology politics and geography named after elisa the granddaughter of lotus s owner at the time romano artioli of bugatti fame the lotus elise was launched at the frankfurt show in 1995 in the subsequent twenty five years it has not only established itself as the embodiment of what lotus stands for it retains a unique place in the international sports car market no other manufacturer came up with a car to seriously rival the elise nor the exige in terms of handling dexterity on both road and racetrack and it aptly characterizes the definition of a sports car written in johnny tipler s inimitable style this book includes a detailed evolution of the elise and exige including full specification tables
