Climate Change Law in China in Global Context

2020-05-31

in climate change law in china in global context seven climate change law scholars explain how the country's legal system is gradually being mobilized to support the reduction of greenhouse gas emissions in china and achieve adaptation to climate change there has been little english scholarship on the legal regime for climate change in china this volume addresses this gap in the literature and focuses on recent attempts by the country to build defences against the impacts of climate change and to meet the country's international obligations on mitigation the authors are not only interested in china's laws on paper rather the book explains how these laws are implemented and integrated in practice and sheds light on china's current laws laws in preparation the changing standing of law relative to policy and the further reforms that will be necessary in response to the 2015 paris agreement on climate change this comprehensive and critical account of the chinese legal system's response to the pressures of climate change will be an important resource for scholars of international law environmental law and chinese law

I Am Akhilesh

Funding Religious Heritage

2016-03-09

this collection brings together a group of highly respected law and religion scholars to explore the funding of religious heritage in the context of state support for religions the importance of this state support is that on the one hand it illustrates the potential tensions between secular and religious values whilst on the other it constitutes a relevant tool for investigating the question of the legitimacy of such financial support the funding logically varies according to the national system of state religion relationships and this is reflected in the range of countries studied including belgium bulgaria denmark france italy the netherlands spain turkey and the united kingdom the book provides clarity in the assignment of funds to religious heritage as well as seeking to define the limit of what relates to the exercise of worship and what belongs to cultural policy it is clear that the main challenge for the future lies not only in managing the dual purpose of religious monuments but also in re using these buildings which have lost their original purpose this collection will appeal to those interested in cultural heritage management as well as law and religion scholars the views expressed during the execution of the religare project in whatever form and or by whatever medium are the sole responsibility of the authors the european union is not liable for any use that may be made of the information contained therein

The Neighbours of the European Union's Neighbours

should the european neighbourhood policy stop at the borders of the european union s immediate neighbouring countries this book is the first full length study of the neighbours of the eu s neighbours a concept originally introduced by the european commission with reference to saharan africa the middle east and central asia these regions in the eu s broader neighbourhood are often perceived as an arc of crisis from which manifold challenges emanate for europe this timely book takes stock of the state of the eu s cooperation with the neighbours of its neighbours and explores how the concept might help promote security stability and prosperity beyond the countries which are formally part of the european neighbourhood policy how can the eu create bridges between these regions what instruments does the eu have at its disposal and how can it link them in order to respond to the challenges and overcome the current fragmentation one of the conclusions is the suggestion to consider a pragmatic eu strategy for the neighbours of its neighbours which addresses the needs of the broader eu neighbourhood in a more systematic and consistent manner and helps transform in the long run the arc of crisis into another ring of friends
