approach the text examines a representative sampling of the world's major cultural areas and dominant civilizations from Australian aborigines, Amazonia and East African pastoralists to Pacific Islanders, Mesopotamia, China, Hindu India, the British Empire and the United States. These cultures are shown in depth as adapting integrated systems and as part of regional, continental and global systems. He concludes the text with a wide-ranging assessment of human problems in the contemporary commercial world, emphasizing inequality, poverty, environmental degradation and sustainability. A complimentary instructor's manual, test bank and companion website are available to enhance teaching and learning. See Resources tab for additional information.
