patents don t have to be a dry and boring subject and inventors investors and business people may and should enjoy using them to their advantage however to empower the general public to use the patent system to its fullest extent the need remains for a book that introduces important patent concepts in a humanly understandable fashion with down to earth practical advice and more importantly which is not boring as many patent books unavoidably are to readers who are not patent practitioners kfir luzzatto a seasoned patent attorney as well as a fiction writer has dealt with inventors and entrepreneurs for longer than he cares to admit and has assisted both start ups and multinational companies with their patent needs literally all over the world he now exploits the vast experience that he has acquired working in the start up nation israel to introduce the reader to important patent concepts in a fresh and easily understandable manner with down to earth practical advice that is invaluable for investors entrepreneurs and inventors alike what the experts say i ve worked with kfir for many years and i m always impressed by his insights i m excited he has turned his years of experience and gift for clear straight forward prose and a touch of irreverence into this guide so that the important world of patents can be better understood by inventors investors and business people across the globe b i larry granatelli chair of the intellectual property practice group fenwick west llp mountain view ca usa b i in fun with patents israeli patent attorney kfir luzzatto shares many reflections from his career as its introduction says this book will not teach you everything about patent law or how to be a patent practitioner but ranging from the critical difference between a patent and a patent application to the reasons not to rush to plough one's life savings into an invention it offers much practical guidance on working with inventions i hope you enjoy as much as i did this light hearted treatment of some serious subject matter b i andrew bentham european and uk patent attorney ja kemp london uk b i abraham lincoln once said the patent system added the fuel of interest to the fire of genius from now on no inventor entrepreneur or investor shall be able to claim that protecting an invention is a far too complex maze to justify that he did not bother patenting his creation and then cry over his wasted r d this long waited guide on patents eventually sheds light on the most passionating and entertaining area of law which purpose is precisely to enable those imaginative risk takers to be rewarded for their work time and investments b i william lobelson partner germain maureau lyon france b i i spent a whole day to read this book from beginning to end and it was well worth it i will also recommend it to the students of the course where i teach i am sure it will unburden my task b i giorgio long partner european patent attorney jacobacci partners spa milano italy b i in the bible it is stated many who are first will be last and many who are last will be first but in patent who files first is who will be served kfir luzzatto is among the first to use fun in patent related books you can read this book fun with patents with much pleasure this book is easy to understand and consists of a to z about patents it is second to none i have seen to know and learn about patents during my thirty plus years in the field b i bong sig song managing patent attorney y s chang associates seoul korea b i a very well written thorough and essential guide for inventors entrepreneurs and for readers who are not patent practitioners easy to read and understand the book summarizes the important concepts in the patenting process in a very appealing manner which keeps the reader bound to the book and as the name suggests a lot of fun for the readers involved b i chetan chadha head international department chadha chadha new delhi india b i located in the geographical center of berlin the neighboring boroughs of friedrichshain and kreuzberg shared a history and identity until their fortunes diverged dramatically following the construction of the berlin wall which placed them within opposing political systems this revealing account of the two municipal districts before during and after the cold war takes a microhistorical approach to investigate the broader historical trajectories of east and west berlin with particular attention to housing religion and leisure merged in 2001 they now comprise a single neighborhood that bears the traces of these complex histories and serves as an illuminating case study of urban renewal gentrification and other social processes that continue to reshape berlin is the study of living systems a useful metaphor for political science in this book dr dobuzinskis argues for further exploration of biopolitical models to explain the complexity of political theory and social change his discussion emphasizes the new cybernetics which considers not only self regulating but also self organizing or self producing systems self organizing systems operate in an autonomous sphere comparable to the autonomy of the political community and the political actors who compose this community the autonomy of these systems is maintained through dynamic equilibration processes that entail not only the preservation of a given structure but also at crucial times the creative rearrangement of the existing structure and its transformation into a new pattern of relations from this perspective a political crisis is both a threat to the political system and the occasion of its renewal stability may also mean decay emphasizing the links that have developed historically between the natural and social sciences this book is a reflection on the merits of and difficulties involved in representing the evolutionary process at the political level as the problematic reproduction of national communities and states
