An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art 2007-08-01

during the first two decades of his career richardson s role as printer was hardly limited to setting the type for the periodicals that issued from his shop perhaps the most glaring evidence of his intervention in producing text is the fact that both the true briton 1723 24 and the weekly miscellany 1732 41 just happen to have letters supposedly from women who protest the legal restraints against their participation in the public sphere neither the duke of wharton the owner of the true briton nor william webster the desperately impecunious producer of the weekly miscellany launched their journals with the objective of advancing radical views about political equality for women but almost inadvertently this middle aged rotund printer at salisbury court was quietly feminizing journalism after his first experiments in wharton s anti walpole journal he developed his satiric powers in the miscellany by creating not only his own feisty counterpart to pope s coquette belinda but even partnering with sarah chapone s subversive delia as an outlier in what was perceived to be a corrupt predatory political world richardson readily assumed a female voice to express his resistance
