excerpt from teacher s manual for the teachings of jesus br way of introduction it might be shown how a man s thought of god shapes all the rest of his thinking his thought of life of duty of religion his hope for the future that is one reason why we begin with this doctrine in the teaching of jesus but the main reason is that this was jesus greatest word to men as it was the all controlling reality of his life god the father here as elsewhere it is helpful to compare jesus teaching with what went before noting how he continues what went before and on the other hand how he surpasses it in esti mating the thought of the old testament about god we must not consider single passages here and there but the dominant idea looking thus we see that in the old testament god was king in the new testament he is father and yet for jesus he is king as well as father we have here another lesson in which we must simplify and select the best plan will be to group the teaching around the two phrases used as headings the king is father the father is king the purpose of the lesson is to bring out clearly this great conception of jesus and so lay the foundation for all the later study i the king is father note how simple this idea is as compared with other conceptions of god a child can understand this show how rich it is and how much it involves then consider the tremendous faith of jesus he believed that love really sat on the throne of the world do we really believe that that rather belongs to the second part ii the father is king this part of the lesson will need special emphasis and development the old theologians emphasized god s sovereignty modern thought emphasizes his fatherhood but jesus includes both we need a revival of this idea of sovereignty here are rich practical lessons about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works in the first part of the sermon on the mount jesus had made four points first he had told his listeners to be poor in spirit which meant that they should have a heart and a mind that would be open to his instructions second he had made some specific promises to those that are poor in spirit mourning over their spiritual condition meek hungry and thirsting after righteousness merciful pure in heart and makers of peace he had then spoken to those people that would be persecuted for his name s sake he had spoken to those that had had a responsibility to be salt and light third he had shared his high view of the scriptures and had showed that his life and his ministry would not contradict anything that the jewish people had been taught in the old testament fourth he had showed his deity by presenting a higher lifestyle for his followers on such matters as anger adultery divorce making oaths self sacrifice and dealing with one s enemies in the second part of his sermon he had given advice about how the saints of god should conduct their lives he had openly criticized the scribes and the pharisees because of their hypocritical giving of alms and because of their long public prayers he had also taught his listeners how they should pray he had spoken to them about the importance of forgiving others because forgiven people should be forgiving people he had then concluded the second part of his sermon by emphasizing how important it is to put the lord first in all things godly people should use their treasures of time talent and resources in ways that will accomplish the lord s will in this existence that means that the saints of god should be concerned about those individuals that will leave this existence not saved because that was and is the major concern of the lord it was for that reason that he had died on the cross at calvary finally in being consistent with that idea of serving the lord and of doing his will is also the idea that a person would be wiser serving him than chasing after all of the meaningless temporal pursuits of this existence in the third part of his sermon jesus had dealt with the problem among many people of being too judgmental when it comes to other people he had told his listeners to worry more about their own faults than about the faults of others he had next shared three levels of prayer where each one is a little more persistent than the other knocking is being more persistent than just seeking which is being more persistent than just asking he had encouraged his listeners to live by the golden rule which simply means to treat others as one would want to be treated by others then in the next part of his sermon he had begun talking more about eternal issues he had indicated that most people are on the wide path that leads to the wide gate that leads to eternal destruction but that is definitely not where one really wants to be either in this life or in the life to come he had next warned his listeners about false prophets which can also be anyone in the ministry that is teaching false doctrine one can know them according to him by their fruit or by what they produce such individuals are like those that have built their house on the sand and they will be very harshly judged in the end so the overriding theme of the sermon of the mount is to seek the lord with all of one s heart and come to him by faith early in life it is to fully live for him throughout one s life this book is about the teachings of jesus not teachings about jesus it is not even about what the new thought movement teaches about jesus it describes what jesus taught about our place in the kingdom of god it does not attempt to incorporate jesus s teachings into the body of new thought principles nor does it attempt to explain the teachings of jesus in new thought terms it is not a metaphysical after thought but a new thought on the teachings of jesus an uncommonly reasonable metaphysical interpretation of the teachings of jesus this book was written for open minded seekers of truth and wisdom as well as free thinkers of every denomination who have the courage to confront the challenge of a new thought it is dedicated to those students and to those who remember hearing the teachings of jesus but have turned away from what was being taught these essays are intended for those who think that the teachings of jesus cannot be reconciled with their spirituality their liberality and their rejection of religion this book is dedicated to those who have thrown the baby out with the bathwater students of new thought need not ignore the teachings of jesus even though they have rejected the doctrines commonly associated with them while new thoughts on the teachings of jesus may be uncommon these commentaries follow a common theme a fundamental truth of jesus teachings oneness with god when read from that perspective one can make perfect sense of what jesus taught nevertheless as everyone s perspective is unique to themselves one persons views may appear rather peculiar to others thus a new thought is always uncommon and must seem odd at first even when it is your own in this sense there can be no common sense where insights are considered there can be common books of prayers doctrines we hold in common with others agreements covenants and shared beliefs but inspiration will always be an uncommon awareness these essays are not a common sense commentary on the teachings of jesus they are not only uncommon in their content but also in their lack of denominational precepts the common approach to gospel commentary is an attempt to make sense of jesus teachings from one s particular religious perspective which may explain why common sense is an uncommon thing in the field of religion and spirituality even though most people search the teachings of jesus for an endorsement of their denomination s theology that was not jesus s intent he spoke to individuals in a way that required them to find the meaning of his words within themselves the teachings of jesus new thoughts on the gospels principles prayers and parables facilitates this inner search whether one starts from the new thought perspective or traditional christianity this book does not speak on behalf of one denomination it addresses the search that everyone must make for themselves the intent herein is not to present well worn truths in support of anyone s religious beliefs nor used and abused truths or an explanation of how these truths can be used to justify beliefs doctrines and dogma the intention is to provide a new thought on eternal truths as expressed in the teachings of jesus these truths are not new and some of the thoughts found in these essays echo statements by other much older thinkers of new thoughts however eternal truths never get old and they may be news to you the truth is never a new idea but the inspiration it reveals is always a new thought we reprint the original version of the book the teachings of red cloud published in 1934 including some of the first conferences held by red cloud between 1930 and 1932 that have never been printed before in 2015 we found the teachings of the guide spirit of estelle roberts collected in the famous book red cloud speaks my mission that includes part of the communications occurred from 1935 to 1938 in 2016 with our great pleasure we bring to light one more piece of the teachings that red cloud has communicated through its medium estelle roberts for 50 years traces of all these teachings had been missing for a long time right because of the lack of historical information we deem it appropriate to publish these rare documents just as we found them these pages give the opportunity to broaden your knowledge of red cloud the guide spirit who had announced to maurice barbanell the cooperation with silver birch red cloud like silver birch pursued the mission of helping humanity to re think re discover the idea of god in the full freedom of free will trying to break the chains of dogmas or creeds yes it is necessary to keep on spreading the teachings of spiritualism even in italy throughout the centuries spiritualism has always been hindered yet with different definitions from the one we use today it is the oldest movement known in the world it is always the same force of the spirit that is in operation the philosophy of teachings like the ones you will find in this book reveals a true knowledge of the concept of god one that does not need intermediaries like churches or theology it reveals the bond of mediumship with god it brings back to us the instruments we need to reason on religiosity the demonstration mediumship gives us that life is eternal that the spirit and the soul are immortal has the purpose of bringing us back to the authentic knowledge of god as jesus already did but jesus christ s teaching has been lost in many of its aspects by churches and by theology themselves the teachings of spiritualism lead us to understand why each form of mediumship is a sacred gift at god s service always whose purpose is not only to prove us that life is eternal but also to make us aware that everything is in communion with god we are all part of the infinite spirit of god the fourteenth century zen master bassui was recognized as one of the most important zen teachers of his time accessible and eloquent these teachings cut to the heart of the great matter of zen pointing directly to the importance of seeing our own original nature and recognizing it as buddhahood itself bassui is taking familiar concepts in buddhism and recasting them in an essential zen light though he lived centuries ago in a culture vastly different from our own zen master bassui speaks with a voice that spans time and space to address our own modern challenges in our lives and spiritual practice like the revered master dogen several generations before him bassui was dissatisfied with what passed for zen training and taught a radically reenergized form of zen emphasizing deep and direct penetration into one s own true nature and also like dogen bassui uses powerful and often poetic language to take familiar buddhist concepts recast them in a radically non dual zen light making ancient doctrines vividly relevant this edition of mud and water contains several teachings never before translated shin is the uniquely japanese flowering of the type of buddhism known as pure land it originated in the thirteenth century with the charismatic and prophetic figure shinran 1172 1263 whose interpretation of the traditional pure land teachings was extremely influential in his own lifetime and remain so today in a period when japanese buddhism was dominated by an elitist monastic establishment shinran s shin teaching became a way of liberation for all people regardless of age class or gender although shin is one of japan s greatest religious contributions and is still the most widely practiced form of buddhism in japan it remains little known in the west in this book based on several lectures he gave in the 1950s d t suzuki illuminates the deep meaning of shin and its rich archetypal imagery providing a scholarly and affectionate introduction to this sometimes misunderstood tradition of buddhist practice

The Teaching of Jesus in Parables (1907) 2009-04

one of the key tenets of the zen school of mahayana buddhism is that each one of us is already a buddha our enlightenment is inherent within us and the practice of mindfulness is the tool to bring this truth to our full awareness while it can bring much relief this simple statement does not preclude the need for practice we must strive to always be aware of our buddha nature rather than waiting until times of emotional upheaval when it is more difficult to practice thich nhat hanh uses the teachings of ninth century zen master linji to elaborate on this simple truth and to give readers tools that can help awaken them to their true inner nature linji s recorded teachings are the most significant we have from the ch an school one of the unique aspects of linji s teaching is the need to wake ourselves up not only by means of sitting meditation and listening to enlightened teachings but also through unique techniques such as the shout the stick and the empty fist master linji emphasized direct experience of our true nature over intellectual explorations of the teachings and he encouraged his students to not become lost in the knowledge or the concepts of the teaching powerful direct and uncompromising thich nhat hanh s reflections on the teachings of master linji are destined to become classic buddhist writings
