knowing the signs of the times and how then to live as people of faith has never been more pressing for the church though many of the signs are disturbing we ignore them at our great peril combining the very best attributes of a biblical prophet and a modern day reporter james emery white offers a look at twenty five realities facing the church in the areas of belief culture marriage and family media and technology and mission and how they affect us as individuals and as a body of believers functioning as both a telescope and a microscope this hard hitting examination of the future of the church looks into the vastness of the world and into the minute recesses of our hearts white calls on thoughtful readers to sharpen their spiritual drive and determination in order to meet the challenges of our day and the future he calls us to look beyond the daily conflicts in order to see the much larger war in which we are engaged so that we might play our vital role in preserving and growing christ s church in the coming age god s saved israel examines identity in the pauline corpus in terms of how paul expresses the new identity in christ in relation to the identity of ancient israel in this study the way in which paul uses the terms israel israelite and judean is approached on the basis of the way in which these terms were used in the second temple period by both insiders and outsiders rather than presupposing that paul used it in a different way by thoroughly engaging with the new perspective on paul and the radical new perspective on paul paul s conception of identity is pursued mainly along theological exegetical lines especially in terms of the contrast between flesh and s spirit while rom 11 26 which points to all israel that will be saved and gal 6 16 which points to the israel of god who are blessed are often utilized in a paradigmatic way to interpret the rest of paul the approach in this book is the other way around these two texts are approached by first assessing paul s conception of identity in the whole of the pauline corpus and then by interpreting rom 11 26 and gal 6 16 with a larger understanding of identity in paul at hand no discipline has been more uniformly derided for a longer period than metaphysics of the ancient and medieval sciences now in disrepute even astrology and alchemy get better press the most devastating and currently the most influential attack on metaphysics has come from a broad spectrum of thinkers including kierkegaard nietzsche heidegger arendt levinas derrida and milbank who have argued that metaphysics is the root of modern nihilism and totalitarianism anthony mansueto puts this claim to the test developing a historical sociology of metaphysics that analyzes the social basis and political valence of metaphysical systems mansueto does this globally and cross culturally engaging not only the hellenic tradition and its extension into medieval christendom and dar al islam but also the indian and chinese traditions specifically mansueto argues that far from representing the roots of nihilism or modern state terror metaphysics emerges and continues to be necessary as a way to ground meaning and value in societies especially in market societies in which these have become problematic metaphysics tends to restrain exploitation and to encourage the redirection of surplus toward activities that promote development of human capacities knowing god the journey of the dialectic concludes with an outline of a new dialectical metaphysics that reconciles a buddhist metaphysics of interdependence in the hua yen tradition with a historicized metaphysics of esse yielding results that look startlingly like the dao xue or neo confucianism of song china mansueto shows how such a metaphysics can ground meaning and value while answering postmodern concerns to safeguard difference the publication of this issue on future for europe marks a new milestone for tpq the journal was founded in 2002 and we celebrated its 20th anniversary with the last issue on artificial intelligence and democratic values among many academics and ai policy professionals it was considered a landmark publication turkish policy quarterly tpq now has a new identity as transatlantic policy quarterly tpq our plans to move with this name have been ongoing for a while the success of the last issue was a perfect illustration of the necessity of this change tpq s editorial and curatorial policies have and will continue to reflect a global perspective without sacrificing its roots this means we will extend our coverage beyond what we currently offer in the wake of the russian incursion into the ukraine european soil has seen a return of tragedy as memories of the second world war on the continent have receded it has been argued that the european project has lost appeal over the past few decades this is no longer the case the war has also exposed the eu s deficiencies and highlighted the fact that it must be reformed to fulfill the needs of the twenty first century the covid 19 pandemic is also one of the most significant events in our lifetime and it has radically altered the way europeans perceive their own societies and the world in general nonetheless one of the most important lessons we can learn from these tragic events is that we must show a strong constant and united capability to deter and confront acts of violence professor thomas diez writes that the war in ukraine fundamentally challenges the post cold war international order in that regard he believes that alternative visions of a european order should be developed to counter the scenario of a renewed cold war the author reassesses the concepts of interdependence socialization normative power and international society in his contribution to uncover some general lessons for the european order as well as provide concrete suggestions for alternative policy strategies as he points out such an order would require more honest engagement a system of great power management with social links and a creative approach to thinking about joint institutions and regional overlaps professor knud erik jørgensen starts with a timely question europe's hour of reckoning in his view the hour of reckoning refers to when one must confront past mistakes and determine a course of action he says russia's war in ukraine exposes numerous mistakes europe made in the past and accelerates the development of a new foreign policy paradigm as a result he examines the role played by the emerging policy paradigm in shaping the politics of eu foreign policy furthermore the article argues that the emerging paradigm is closely linked if not dependent on the ongoing processes of reckoning that is to the extent with which past mistakes are acknowledged lastly the article makes a case that the twin processes of reckoning and paradigm change make up a crucial element of europe's future professor giuseppe bertola explores a different perspective according to her the common market project that after world war ii aimed to prevent future wars among european nations has evolved through crises into a complex and unstable set of policies and institutions to govern the european union a pandemic caused by the covid 19 virus and the war in ukraine strengthened coordination and added issuance of common debt to the supranational policy toolkit nevertheless nextgeneu relies heavily on government subsidies rather than on market incentives and russian invasion of the ukraine demonstrates that economic integration can only shift the boundaries of war from nation based to those of the integrated economic area we invite you to learn more about the factors that will shape the future of europe

there is a growing interest in public private partnerships ppps particularly in infrastructure and public services under the scope of ppps renegotiations are becoming more relevant as empirical evidence suggests that most ppp projects are inevitably renegotiated i e the original contract needs to be adapted to new and unforeseen circumstances renegotiations have a substantial impact on the contract and performance of a ppp and usually represent significant costs for users and taxpayers however very little is known about the management and mainly the process of renegotiating that will very likely occur this book provides a set of case studies of ppp renegotiations in the transport sector the authors illustrate the portuguese experience a country that has been using ppp extensively particularly in transport the case studies provide an extensive and detailed analysis on each aspect of the project and the renegotiation what drives renegotiations why are some projects more renegotiated than others what are the results how can the performance of renegotiation processes be improved these and other questions provide the basis for the discussions in this book the novelty and value of the book come mainly from the extent of information available each case study deals with these questions in much more detail than what is common in the case studies approach it has been said that every generation of historians seeks to rewrite what a previous generation had established as the standard interpretations of the motives and circumstances shaping the fabric of historical events it is not that the facts of history have changed no one will dispute that the battle of waterloo occurred on june 11 1815 or that the allied invasion of europe began on june 6 1944 what each new age of historians are attempting to do is to reinterpret the motives of men and the force of circumstance impacting the direction of past events based on the factual social intellectual and cultural milieu of their own generation by examining the facts of history from a new perspective today's historians hope to reveal some new truth that will not only illuminate the course of history but also validate contemporary values and societal ideals although it is true that tackling the task of developing a new text on logistics and distribution channel management focuses less on schools of philosophical and social analysis and more on the calculus of managing sales campaigns inventory replenishment and income statements the goal of the management scientist like the historian is to merge the facts and figures of the discipline with today's organizational cultural and economic realities hopefully the result will be a new synthesis where a whole new perspective will break forth exposing new directions and opportunities
