why we need more canadian health policy in the media is a compilation of health policy commentaries published by evidencenetwork.ca experts in major newspapers in 2015 these articles highlight the most recent evidence on a wide range of health policy topics including our aging population healthcare costs and spending mental health pharmaceutical policy the social determinants of health and distinctions between the canadian and american healthcare system among other topics this is the fourth volume in the annual series of ebooks produced by evidencenetwork.ca the first being canadian health policy in the news 2013 followed by making evidence matter in canadian health policy 2014 and navigating the evidence communicating canadian health policy in the media 2015 we acknowledge the canadian institutes for health research research manitoba the manitoba centre for health policy the george and fay yee centre for healthcare innovation cihr s institute of health services and policy research and their institute of population and public health the canadian frailty network and the university of manitoba s department of community health sciences and max rady college of medicine whose funding supports evidencenetwork.ca whoever you are whatever your financial situation i m here to give you a wake up call my friend twenty five years ago i set off on my own with nothing but a folding table and a phone for years real success eluded me i told people i was doing well when i was often on the edge of being broke millions of people face the same plight including my beloved brother in law who died tragically before he could fix his money problems that was my wake up call i knew i needed more money but i didn t know how to get it i only turned things around by getting honest with myself taking responsibility for my situation and figuring out some practical solutions now i m going to show you how to do the same in polite society we don t like to talk about money but it s too important to tiptoe around in these pages you and i are going to cut the bs and get real for starters i ll help you understand how the money has moved stop making decisions based on advice that worked decades ago but no longer the dangers of living in a false positive it s easy to tell ourselves that we have enough until we re hit with medical bills aging parents tuition or early retirement the cheap comfort of the blamer mind set it might feel good to blame the government the economy or your boss for your troubles but it won t change anything do you want an excuse or do you want more money the power of lifestyle by design visualize your long term goal and work backward to figure out how to get there the trade offs of being an employer or employee you can get rich by starting a business or by rising to the top of an existing organization let s figure out what s right for you it s going to take grit and guts but if you follow my road map you ll start accumulating real wealth the kind that lets you live the life of your dreams and lasts for generations to come poverty isn t always a jumble of appalling statistics sometimes there are names faces and stories to the numbers it s a cousin who s finished high school but doesn t have enough money to job hunt it s a colleague whose hand to mouth living still only gets her through half the month because her salary is just not enough it s a grandfather who worked for decades and got a retirement package so paltry he can t pay his monthly bills when people you know and love are behind the data of impoverishment it can be hard to determine how to help it can be even harder to settle on how much to help without compromising on your own quality of life in we need more tables norma young provides guidance on how to find a balance between alleviating poverty and yet maintaining a measure of the privilege one may have been born with by exploring assumptions such as the myth of hard work and the fallacy of meritocracy as well as historical methodologies of philanthropy in africa and suggesting the practice of impactful altruism such as paying a living wage building a solidarity economy or choosing regenerative investing she shares an outline of how those with privilege can play a role in social justice drawing on indigenous knowledge fables proverbs and learnings from african academics we need more tables presents a framework of what is required to bring more of our communities to participate at the tables where decisions are made norma young s insightful book provides us with realistic and practical ways of moving towards eradicating poverty in south africa she has everything she wants dr erika johnson s life couldn t get any better her practice is flourishing and her hunk of a husband brock can t keep his hands off her until the day he suddenly leaves her without a word of explanation stunned erika has no choice but to cobble together a new life on her own when she serves brock with divorce papers erika is certain he ll sign them so they can both move on but that s when the surprises really begin except the man she loves brock is sure he did the right thing all he ever wanted was to bring joy into erika s life not pain and sorrow but when rumors reach him that erika is seeing another man he s torn between what he thinks is right and what he feels is right despite everything there s no denying the fierce attraction she and brock have always shared is burning hotter than ever and when erika finally learns brock s secret they must decide if they will face the uncertain future together or apart a critical exploration of today s global imperative to innovate by champions critics and reformers of innovation corporate executives politicians and school board leaders agree americans must innovate innovation experts fuel this demand with books and services that instruct aspiring innovators in best practices personal habits and workplace cultures for fostering innovation but critics have begun to question the unceasing promotion of innovation pointing out its gadget centric shallowness the lack of diversity among innovators and the unequal distribution of innovation s burdens and rewards meanwhile reformers work to make the training of innovators more inclusive and the outcomes of innovation more responsible this book offers an overdue critical exploration of today s global imperative to innovate by bringing together innovation s champions critics and reformers in conversation the book presents an overview of innovator training exploring the history motivations and philosophies of programs in private industry universities and government offers a primer on critical innovation studies with essays that historicize contextualize and problematize the drive to create innovators and considers initiatives that
