a new strain of realism has emerged in france the novels that embody it represent diverse fears immigration and demographic change radical islam feminism new technologies globalization american capitalism and the european union but these books often best sellers share crucial affinities in their dystopian visions the collapse of france europe and western civilization is portrayed as all but certain and the literary mode of realism begins to break down above all they depict a degenerative force whose effects on the nation and on reality itself can be felt examining key novels by michel houellebecq frédéric beigbeder aurélien bellanger yann moix and other french writers christy wampole identifies and critiques this emergent tendency toward degenerative realism she considers the ways these writers draw on social science the new journalism of the 1960s political pamphlets reportage and social media to construct an atmosphere of disintegration and decline wampole maps how degenerative realist novels explore a world contaminated by conspiracy theories mysticism and misinformation responding to the internet age s confusion between fact and fiction with a lament for the loss of the real and an unrelenting emphasis on the role of the media in crafting reality in a time of widespread populist anxieties over the perceived decline of the french nation this book diagnoses the literary symptoms of today s reactionary revival

Soumission de Michel Houellebecq (Analyse de l'œuvre). 2017

o novo romance do vencedor do prêmio goncourt michel houellebecq uma sátira incisiva na tradição de orwell e huxley França 2022 depois de um segundo turno acirrado as eleições presidenciais são vencidas por mohammed ben abbes o candidato da chamada fraternidade muçulmana carismático e conciliador ben abbes agrupa uma frente democrática ampla mas as mudanças sociais no início imperceptíveis aos poucos se tornam dramáticas françois é um acadêmico solitário e desencantado que espera da vida apenas um pouco de uniformidade tomado de surpresa pelo regime islâmico ele se vê obrigado a lidar com essa nova realidade cujas consequências ao contrário do que ele poderia esperar não serão necessariamente desastrosas comparado a 1984 de george orwell e a admirável mundo novo de aldous huxley submissão é uma sátira precisa devastadora sobre os valores da nossa própria sociedade É um dos livros mais impactantes da literatura atual

MICHEL HOUELLEBCQ 2018

michel houellebecq is france s most famous and controversial living novelist since his first novel in 1994 houellebecq s work has been called pornographic racist sexist islamophobic and metropolitan urban movement but this study identifies key spaces elsewhere from fin de siècle saigon to india in the heyday of french colonialism from byzantium to ancient persia although the colonies were held up by some as an antidote to the threat of french decline other writings reveal anxiety that the antidote might itself be a form of poison colonial contact might exacerbate degeneration whether through cultural mixing or through the violence of colonial aggression itself a profound anxiety about french identity and france s so called mission civilisatrice is played out through the imagery the style and the pose of decadence can civil war ever be overcome can a better order come into being this book explores how the roman civil wars of the first century bce laid the template for addressing perennially urgent questions the roman republic s collapse and augustus new empire have remained ideological battlegrounds to this day integrative and disintegrative readings begun in antiquity vergil and lucan have left their mark on answers given by christians augustine secular republicans victor hugo and disillusioned satirists michel houellebecq alike france s self understanding as a new rome republican during the revolution imperial under successive napoleons makes it a special case in the roman tradition the same story returns repeatedly a golden age of restoration glimmers on the horizon but comes in the guise of a decadent oriental empire that reintroduces and exposes everything already wrong under the defunct republic central to the price of social order is patriarchy s need to subjugate women

for at least fifteen years any keen observer of european society has been aware that antisemitism is no longer a matter of racial theory nationalism or exclusion of the other while in the past antisemites saw jews as all too modern rootless cosmopolitans to use stalin s expression today s european antisemitism construes them as obsolete precisely because they are attached to their roots their land their community their origin the jews are now perceived as a reactionary force that hinders the progress of humankind toward multiculturalism understood as the peaceful infinitely enriching coexistence of ethnicities races religions and cultures within the same territory the antisemite of yore viewed the jews as an inferior race today he views them as racist by looking back to the emergence of a postwar theoretical discourse on trauma memory victims suffering the holocaust and the jews is theory good for the jews explores how french thought is implicated in intellectual literary and ideological components of the global and local upsurge of antisemitism the author probes the legacy of heidegger in france and exposes the shortcomings of radical social critique and postcolonial theory confronted to the challenge of islamic terrorism and jew hatred this book is the first effort to analyze french responses that have regrettably played their part in generating the new antisemitism

French Decadence in a Global Context 2022-07-12 francophone literature as world literature examines french language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization the francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the french empire the 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after world war ii and especially since the 1980s from the french hexagon to the caribbean and india and from québec to the maghreb and romania understood and practiced as world literature francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the littérature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority

the essays in this edited volume written in english and french tackle the intriguing problems of fear and safety by analysing their various meanings and manifestations in literature and other narrative media the articles bring forth new cross cultural interpretations on fear and safety through examining what kinds of genre specific means of world making narratives use to express these two affectivities the articles also show how important it is to study these themes in order to understand challenges in times of global threats such as the climate crisis the main themes of the book are approached from various theoretical perspectives as related to their literary and cultural representations recent trends in research such as affect and risk theory serve as the basis for the discussion the articles in the volume also draw from disciplines such as gender studies and trauma studies to examine the threats posed by collective fears and aggression on individuals lives and propose ways of coping with fear these themes are addressed also in articles analysing new adaptations of old myths that retell stories of the past many of the articles in the volume discuss apocalyptic and dystopian narratives that currently permeate the entire cultural landscape dystopian narratives do not only deal with future threats such as totalitarianism technocracy or environmental disasters but also suggest alternative ways of being and new hopes in the form of political resistance

Civil War and the Collapse of the Social Bond 2022-10-13

romanticism is an intuitive grasp of the self and the other in an interdependent imperative non systematic transcendent radically individuated and endlessly interconnective the set of norms romanticism represents and broadcasts therefore lends itself particularly well to interdisciplinary and cross linguistic study essentially demanding a view coming from and constructed out of more than one discourse field these norms radically transgress not only the cultural and literary inheritance of thinkers and artists beginning in the late eighteenth century but do so in a transnational and comparative way unique in western history this collection of essays bringing together established scholars and newer academic voices offers fresh perspectives on what romanticism thought itself to be by suggesting spaces in romanticism studies needing negotiation and elaboration presenting a protocol that escapes the circular referentiality of romanticism studies typically limited to one academic discipline or one language area this volume works through topics and ideas including hegelian reflections lyric poetry stage drama music political implications and even vampires outlaws and zombies
