the qur an provides an intuitive and powerful argument for god s existence or were they created by nothing or were they the creators of themselves or did they create the heavens and earth rather they are not certain although this argument refers to the qur an uses the word khuliq which means created made or originated the second argument for the existence of god is found in the third verse of chapter 112 of the holy qur an which states ا لل الم ص د these words mean that allah is the only being who is perfect the qur an is god s final revelation to mankind this book is a culmination of years of diligent study of the qur an in search for answers that have perplexed thinkers for centuries does god exist is there a life after death what is our purpose in life this book presents convincing arguments from the qur an to answer these questions whether it is a question of god s powers of creation the rationale for his acts or how people are to think clearly about their lives and fates muslims have so internalized qur anic patterns of reasoning that many will assert that the qur an appeals first of all to the human powers of intellect criticism of religion the quran is viewed to be the scriptural foundation of islam and is believed by muslims to have been sent down by god arabic الله romanized allah and revealed to muhammad by the angel jabreel gabriel this is the quran the speech of allah that has been challenging humankind and proving its inability to produce something to its effect as to its eloquence wise judgments and authentic news the challenge is still valid and the inability of mankind to face that challenge remains this book however argues that arguments for god s existence are absent from the theological and philosophical works of the classical islamic era this is not to say that the arguments encountered there are flawed arguments for god s existence for example the quran says unto god belong the treasures khaza in of the heavens and of the earth lxiii 7 whereas contemplation upon the names and qualities of god is recommended in the quran reflection upon his essence al dhat is forbidden for god is beyond all descriptions and definitions divine according to islamic belief it is a literal transcript of god s speech revealed to muhammad through gabriel to be recited to his community it consists of 114 chapters of varying length called surahs and includes allusions to narratives familiar to judaism and christianity web2 logic rhetoric and legal reasoning in the quran gods arguments routledgecurzon studies in the quran 2020 12 15 different
