Maryland Elder Family and Kin 1975

this book is designed to let the reader know that god created the institution of marriage between a man and a woman it is a gift ordained by god i believe that god has given me a message for such a time as this to inspire couples with necessary knowledge they need to equip and arm them with the needed tools to resolve chaos in the midst of conflict i offer hope to marriages on the brink of disaster i give biblical insight to god s views concerning these issues i also share some of my personal experiences as a young wife and mother trying to raise a family i share with the reader my hardships and triumph my purpose is to equip couples with the needed tools to achieve a healthy family environment

Divine Destiny Equipping the Family for Success 2012-11

the information herein was accumulated of fifty some odd years the collection process started when tv first came out and continued until today the books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010 the author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role also included are most of the people who created the shows the producers directors and the writers of the shows these books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories i know a lot of times we think back and say who was the guy that played such and such a role enjoy

This extensive bibliography and reference guide is an invaluable resource for researchers, practitioners, students, and anyone with an interest in Canadian film and video. With over 24,500 entries, of which 10,500 are annotated, it opens up the literature devoted to Canadian film and video at last, making it readily accessible to scholars and researchers. Drawing on both English and French sources, it identifies books, catalogues, government reports, theses, and periodical and newspaper articles from Canadian and non-Canadian publications from the first decade of the twentieth century to 1989. The work is bilingual; descriptive annotations are presented in the language(s) of the original publication. Canadian Film and Video Film et Vidéo Canadiens provides an in-depth guide to the work of over 4,000 individuals working in film and video and 5,000 films and videos. The entries in Volume I cover topics such as film types, the role of government, laws and legislation, censorship, festivals, and awards, production and distribution, companies, education, cinema buildings, women, and film and video art. A major section covers filmmakers, video artists, cinematographers, actors, producers, and various other film people. Volume II presents an author index, a film and video title index, and a name and subject index in the tradition of the highly acclaimed publication Art and Architecture in Canada. These volumes fill a long-standing need for a comprehensive reference tool for Canadian film and video. This bibliography guides and supports the work of film historians and practitioners, media librarians, and visual curators, students, and researchers, and members of the general public with an interest in film and video.
