army tanks lorries and jeeps an invaluable reference for historians modelers and collectors the markings of a 1944 u s army jeep are an iconic image of american military and the second world war but few people know what the distinctive white letters numbers and symbols actually mean this uniquely detailed guide explains how these and other markings were integral to organizing the u s army on the move u s army vehicle markings 1944 covers all the markings used on american military vehicles to denote their unit and classification it also covers tactical markings and the debarkation codes used in the normandy landings hundreds of contemporary photographs are paired with precise color diagrams to show exactly how markings appeared on vehicles including the exact measurements the volume explains all the variations in the use of these markings and includes a chapter on the varieties of camouflage used on vehicles the patrol vehicles used by special operations forces in afghanistan and iraq vary quite dramatically between the theatres as well as amongst the coalition members and have been developed and upgraded to meet the demands of the deployment covering all the major coalition nations leigh neville continues his look at the elite forces deployed in operations enduring freedom and iraqi freedom with this analysis of their vehicles tracing the evolution of the vehicle types from their historical precedents through their designs to their operational developments he discusses their advantages and disadvantages along with their tactical employment from the mine protected vehicles used to counter the ied threat in iraq the use of strykers as armoured raiding platforms by the us rangers to the civilian vehicles adapted for military service by both coalition troops and private military contractors in the regions this book uses rare in theatre photographs and colour artwork to show the variety and inventiveness of the patrol vehicles being used in combat today an epic world war ii story of valor sacrifice and the rangers who led the way to victory in europe it is said that the right man in the right place at the right time can make the difference between victory and defeat this is the dramatic story of sixty eight soldiers of the u s army s 2nd ranger battalion d company dog company who made that difference time and again from d day when german guns atop pointe du hoc threatened the allied landings and the men of dog company scaled the ninety foot cliffs to destroy them to the thickly forested slopes of hill 400 in germany s hü forest where the rangers launched a desperate bayonet charge across an open field captured the crucial hill and held it against all odds in each battle the men of dog company made the difference dog company is their unforgettable story thoroughly researched and vividly told by acclaimed combat historian patrick k o donnell a story of extraordinary bravery courage and determination america had many heroes in world war ii but few can say that but for them the course of the war may have been very different the right men in the right place at the right time dog company published each year since 1959 the military
