seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade 1 a university of marburg institute for anglistics american studies course ps introduction to the early 19th century novel 4 entries in the bibliography language english abstract it is a truth universally acknowledged that helen fielding did not invent the plot of her novel bridget jones s diary which was first published in 1996 all by herself when asked about it in an online chat session fielding

admits that she shamelessly stole the plot of pride and prejudice written by jane austen n pag bridget jones s diary received great praise from critics in the united kingdom and beyond in 1999 fielding published a sequel called bridget jones the edge of reason a highly anticipated film adaptation entered cinemas in 2001 and soon became very successful even though jane austen s novel was published nearly two hundred years earlier than fielding s its plot still seems to be relevant to a turn of the millennium readership what parallels are there between the two novels and their heroines in how far are elizabeth and bridget children of their time what changes did fielding consider necessary when taking pride and prejudice into the late 20th century these questions will be answered in this paper
