at the first glance the novel could have been classified as a thriller with suspense and sensual plot that at least partly is set in an environment of soft porno movie production in london at the time of end of 1980s including elements of mafia and ira activities nonetheless there was cleverly smuggled a great deal of information about the work of cameraman as well as of director while rehearsing with the actors or carrying out shooting of the movie further on it entertains with real and anecdotic information about the cinematic environment besides the novel is bringing a spectrum of information about writing a script for a historical movie and development of the concept of its realization while doing so it is also building up a reflective view over 15s century french poet francois villon his personality and highly original oeuvre the main thread of the contemporary action of the novel drifts towards the historical one and in a way they become tragically connected
