The Bahamas Ministry of Education (MOE) has responsibility for more than 50,000 K-12 students in approximately 170 educational institutions in the Commonwealth of the Bahamas, which are dispersed over 11 districts in the major islands.

A pacing guide is a year-long plan of when you will teach what content it takes each standard and theme and maps it out for you. Then when you go to plan, you just look at the guide to see what standard or topic you are

If you're wanting to know how to use a pacing guide, you're in the right place. What is a pacing guide? A pacing guide is used to pace out a certain period of time and to identify standards or units to be taught during that time.

Pacing guides are created by school district leaders to help teachers stay on track and to ensure curricular continuity across schools in the district. These guides serve a purpose similar to that of traditional scope and sequence documents, which lay out expectations of the material to be covered in each subject at each grade.

A pacing guide breaks those down by week or segments of time. For example, one PLC I worked with created a document for each quarter that contained both mapping and pacing. Teachers started with identifying the unit standards and decided what kind of unit summative would best assess those standards.

By narrowing the focus of instruction on priority content, leaders can create flexible time within a pacing guide for teachers to reinforce essential learning from prior grades. In our work with school leaders, we found that prioritizing
