The Research Paper 1966

just a little country boy is a story of the trials in the life of a young black boy born during the late depression years in arkansas in 1940 when segregation was at its worst in the south his father moved the family to milwaukee wisconsin in search of a better life an industrial revolution was taking place throughout the north at the time offering better employment opportunities for the black man therefore the black migration began with black families leaving the servile attitudes of the south with the dreams of a better life leroy allen was blessed with good hard working parents who taught him to take pride in himself to work hard use good manners and to respect all people as a teenager he took an interest in and competed in almost all sports but his big interest was boxing he became wisconsin state golden gloves champion for 3 different years later he spent a few years as a professional boxer meeting and sparring with many well known boxers of that era as a young adult he became more aware of the prejudices and inequities surrounding the black man most of his adult years were spent moving from job to job trying to improve his circumstances while searching for decent employment to support his growing family after experiencing nearly 50 different jobs he succeeded in being hired into a position for which he was trained and well qualified he was well into middle age before the job market began to hire women or blacks into responsible positions mr allen records many of the changes in the attitudes towards blacks in milwaukee and across the nation as they occurred during the last half of the 20th century it is a story of faith determination and fortitude and a real insight into our nations awakening to the talents of our black citizens and our growing respect for their contributions to our society
