NLT DaySpring Hope & Encouragement Bible 2006-10-22 volume 27 in the historical series of the reformed church in america chronicles the life and ministry of one of the rca's most significant twentieth century representatives howard g hageman 1921 1992 respected pastor teacher president of new brunswick theological seminary and weekly columnist for the church herald

NLT Dayspring Hope & Encouragement Bible (Leatherlike, Navy Blue) 1998 in a virtuoso display of erudition thoughtfulness and humour terry eagleton teases apart the concept of hope as it has been often mistakenly conceptualised over six millennia from ancient greece to today he distinguishes hope from simple optimism cheeriness desire idealism or adherence to the doctrine of progress bringing into focus a standpoint that requires reflection and commitment arises from clear sighted rationality can be cultivated by practice and self discipline and which acknowledges but refuses to capitulate to the realities of failure and defeat authentic hope is indubitably tragic yet eagleton also argues for its radical implications as a species of permanent revolution whose enemy is as much political complacency as metaphysical despair it is a means of facing the future without devaluing the moment or obviating the past traversing centuries of thought about the many modes of hoping from ernst bloch s monumental work through the stoics aquinas marx and kierkegaard among others this penetrating book throws new light on religious faith and political ideology as well as issues such as the problem of evil the role of language and the meaning of the past hope without optimism is a brilliantly engaged impassioned chronicle of human belief and desire in an increasingly uncertain world

In Remembrance and Hope 2023-05-24 for more than three hundred years black women have embodied a theology of hope which has enabled them to overcome a history of abuse and violence while a theology of hope has been widely discussed in twentieth centry theology it was born in slavery long before jurgen moltmann introduced it to america in 1967 even womanist notions of hope have not explored the theological character of hope in abused black women s narratives a elaine brown crawford argues that hope is the theological construct that moves black women beyond endurance and survival to transformation of their personal and communal realities this book identifies and analyzes the theological vision of hope voiced within the narratives of enslaved emancipated and contemporary black women and brings that vision into discussion with contemporary womanist theologies

Hope Without Optimism 2002-01-01 it is estimated that well over 250 000 military veterans from iraq and afghanistan are suffering today from ptsd and even more from post traumatic stress or pts clinical interventions alone do not adequately address all the issues associated with ptsd there is also a profound spiritual dimension to trauma and it is frequently manifested in post trauma symptoms such as guilt grief and shame and in various forms of loss including loss of meaning loss of faith and loss of peace pastors chaplains and christian counselors have a legitimate healing role alongside clinicians in addressing the spiritual aspects of trauma through spiritual interventions that are based on scripture and leverage new ways of viewing trauma and assumptions about its meaning beyond trauma hope healing for warriors equips pastors chaplains and other pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and resources to not only understand the spiritual effects of trauma but to make appropriate interventions that will lead veterans in their churches and communities to healing and growth

Hope across cultures 2016-03-03 the first twenty four chapters of the book of ezekiel are characterised by vehement declarations of judgement this observation leaves the impression that ezekiel 1 7 is devoid of references to hope and restoration however there is a redactional stratum in this section that supplemented the texts with material that conveys restoration and hope for the future in ezekiel 1 7 many of these additions focus on priestly topics the motif of restoration in the redactional material of ezekiel 3 5 is expressed by the reinstatement of ezekiel in his priestly role this editorial emphasis on ezekiel as priest in the redactional material suggests that the redaction was influenced by zechariah 3 a text that depicts the reinstitution of the exiled zadokite priesthood moreover the redactional material of ezekiel 6 7 drew inspiration from the law of the temple in ezekiel 43 46 as the redactors sought to enhance ezekiel's priestly role the study provides new insights into how redactors who may have been associated with the zadokite priesthood inserted the message of hope and restoration into the literary unit ezekiel 1 7 during the post exilic period
