Clothed with Power

2013-06-03

Power is a common word used in many contexts. It can refer to physical strength, political influence, or spiritual authority. In the Bible, power is often associated with God and His ability to create, sustain, and redeem. The concept of being "clothed with power" suggests that we are to be equipped with the strength and authority of God. This is a spiritual reality that can be accessed through faith and obedience. The book of Isaiah 61:1-3 provides a powerful illustration of this concept, as the Holy Spirit anointed Jesus to bring good news to the poor, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and to open the eyes of the blind. This power is not just for the sake of the individual but for the sake of the world. It is a power that is meant to be shared and used for the benefit of others. The book of Isaiah 61:1-3 is a beautiful passage that describes the power of the Holy Spirit and the mission of Jesus. It is a passage that should be read and meditated upon by all who seek to live in the power of God. The power of God is a reality that is available to all who seek it. It is a power that can change lives and transform the world. It is a power that is meant to be shared and used for the benefit of others. The book of Isaiah 61:1-3 is a beautiful passage that describes the power of the Holy Spirit and the mission of Jesus. It is a passage that should be read and meditated upon by all who seek to live in the power of God.

Lois and Eunice followed the numerous scriptures instructing one generation to pass on their faith to the next generation, and young Timothy grew up to be a second-generation leader of the early church. Often mentoring focuses on reaching out to others, but as parents and grandparents, the first line of mentoring should be within your own family. A concept repeated throughout the Bible, the Bible has many devastating examples of parents who were poor role models or didn't rear their children to know God as well as good and faithful parents whose children wandered away from God. Face-to-face with Lois and Eunice focuses on how women today can be grandmothers, mothers, aunts, and mentors whose faith takes root in the next generation.
