motors May 01 2024 this is a handy tester for 6 and 12 volt systems it has a dual range voltmeter 0 to 10 and 0 to 20 volts a dual range ammeter and a reostat that can load generators alternators it can also test for charge discharge any manuals would be handy model 100 injection pump experts red power magazine

Mar 31 2024 posted may 13 2009 what little i know about pumps just enough to be dangerous on an ambac 100 you have to take the head out of the pump as the seal i think its just an oring maybe a square cut one not sure is only accessible from the inside basically you strip your pump down completely just to get at the seal
