focusing on what led to chaos resentment and hostility from abuse and neglect during my childhood guides my journey to a testimony of hope and healing during my search for healing i discovered its not the details in my story but the outcome from my journey that holds great substance clarifying what this means to me has come after repeatedly processing the pain from past memories and attempting to make sense of the whats and whys i now realize its more critical to endure the pain of emotional surgery and rid myself of what polluted my heart rather than allowing my mind to be consumed with a past that lead to no positive outcome a simple approach ive embraced is gracefully vomiting up the painful details that became my souls disease since the solution to being free of most diseases requires major surgery to be set free from the weight of my past i had to purge all destructive coping patterns leading to my disease and replace them with something else i had a choice remain stuck in these details at a great cost to my well being or remove what caused my souls disease to interfere with everything i desired to be relationally linked to my marriage children and even my worship with god theres nothing pleasant about regurgitating however the effort of doing so brought me great freedom and forgiveness as the replacement of this weight led to a positively beautiful outcome you too can find hope be still and know that i am god psalm 46 10

dear broken heart you must be hurting deeply perhaps you're also feeling overwhelmed and completely alone in this place of emptiness and grief i've been where you are and my heart aches with yours i want you to know there is someone who sees and someone who cares his name is jesus the journey right now is dark and painful but if you will travel with me using god's word as our guide it will eventually lead to a place of hope and restoration a destination where god's love ushers you into wholeness where his healing hand won't just repair your shattered soul but will establish you in the truth that you are deeply loved and understood in contrast to your current sorrow this may seem too good to be true i get that i've been there at this point i'm only asking you to trust that he is able i invite you to spend these next six weeks at the feet of jesus and allow him to enter into your wounded heart through this very place of brokenness will you give him permission to transform you in a way that far exceeds your own expectations colleen meissner married for the first time at 42 colleen knows firsthand the pain of heartbreak being single longer than expected and the battle against fear and insecurity she holds a master s degree in clinical psychology and has spent over 10 years sharing her own experience and knowledge as a coach and mentor she now has a vision to share the wisdom she s been given with you

Broken by Fear, Anchored in Hope 2007-02

seeds of hope the diary of a broken girl is my journey this is a story that proves the power of god if you submit it s a story showing god s love and grace time and time again it shows the battle of how god fights for his daughter it shows the transformation of a scared young girl turned into a warrior for christ helping other women find their way to peace and freedom this is my testimony

Broken Still Chosen 2018-04-18

i have seen what we can create together an ocean of chaos where love is flooded with heartbreaks and broken promises where dreams are turned into nightmares and our hearts turned into stones but i ve also seen that beautiful world that we created the undying love that s inside of us and the strength to withstand all of this chaos and now we re living between love and hate trying to hold on to each other where the strings of hope is getting thinner everyday and love is fading into the darkness of our broken hearts there is poetry all around us in everything we do in everything we feel in everyone we meet and i believe we all have different ways of expressing that moment i try to chain those moments and turn them into poetry i have invested my mind energy and soul into creating this book of poetry that gives the reader a sense of belonging peace and joy it helps the reader in understanding how little things that transpire in life can occupy biggest part of our heart life is full of love happiness and sorrow and this book tries to bring out every part of one s life into a beautiful enthralling poetry what we hold close to our heart might one day drift so far from reach
