protecting and informing consumers as a crusading reporter he chased snake oil peddlers rip off artists and corporate thieves winning the applause of his peers but along the way he noticed that there was something far more troublesome going on while the networks screamed about the dangers of exploding bic lighters and coffeepots worse risks were ignored and while reporters were teaming up with lawyers and legislators to stick it to big business they seldom reported the ways the free market made life better in give me a break stossel explains how ambitious bureaucrats intellectually lazy reporters and greedy lawyers make your life worse even as they claim to protect your interests taking on such sacred cows as the fda the war on drugs and scaremongering environmental activists and backing up his trademark irreverence with careful reasoning and research he shows how the problems that government tries and fails to fix can be solved better by the extraordinary power of the free market he traces his journey from cub reporter to 20 20 co anchor revealing his battles to get his ideas to the public his struggle to overcome stuttering and his eventual realization that for years much of his reporting missed the point stossel concludes the book with a provocative blueprint for change a simple plan in the spirit of the founding fathers to ensure that america remains a place
