conference in september 1996 at the scottish national gallery of modern art during a major giacometti retrospective the contributors are leading curators art historians and literature specialists while the relationship between nineteenth and twentieth century painters and writers has been the subject of intense interest in recent years the parallel relationship between sculptors and writers has been largely neglected these essays seek to redress the balance by looking at a variety of ways in which the conventional barriers between writing and sculpting were broken down by such pioneering figures as rodin degas bourdelle valéry apollinaire reverdy breton bataille arp picasso and giacometti among the topics discussed are the many personal and professional contacts dual artistic talent ecrits d artistes ekphrasis sculpture as object the sculptorly representation of the poet the poetic representation of the sculptor sculpture as metaphor proprioception and mental images fully illustrated throughout this book offers new perspectives on familiar masterpieces like rodin s gates of hell but also opens up less well known subjects like valéry s sculpture and breton s object poems above all it makes a provocative and original contribution to word and image studies
