The Political Economy of the Service Transition 2013-01-24

over the past four decades the world's most developed economies in Europe, North America and Australasia have faced massive structural change. Industrial sectors which were once considered the economic backbone of these societies have shrunk inexorably in terms of size and economic significance while service sectors have taken over as the primary engines of output and employment expansion. This book is a systematic attempt to understand this transition and its profound implications for the economy, politics and society with a central focus on job creation and destruction.

Digitalization and Asia-Pacific Business Models

2023-02-21

owing to the convergence of multiple cultures coupled with the unprecedented rapid development in the decades since the late 1990s the value creation and innovation logic of asia pacific business models bms has been constantly altered by cultural heterogeneity as a result a more complex and diverse landscape relative to western developed economy bms evolved moreover the digitalization has fundamentally changed the way people do business which has promoted a new wave of business evolution unlike a typical linear mode of innovation driven by market demands in many western cultures a large number of entrepreneurial enterprises from the Asia Pacific with eastern religions and philosophies have tended to adopt unconventional culturally grounded strategies of value creation and innovation in their business models however it is difficult to find a western equivalent to the value creating route that embodies the humanitarian spirit of Confucianism accommodating simultaneously social and economic values to accelerate innovation during internationalization in existing literatures this book offers a more holistic picture and contemporary interpretation for identifying and characterizing the unorthodox innovation patterns and the perplexing value creating logic of Asia Pacific business models at the crossroads of diverse cultures it was originally published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Business Review this book is supported by the National Natural Science Foundation of China no 72272136 71988101
