human rights analyst maureen webb university of toronto law professor kent roach michael byers of the university of british columbia lloyd axworthy maude barlow ed broadbent mel hurtig and avi lewis canadians concerned about the future of their country will find living with uncle a source of understanding analysis hope and inspiration the thirty five supreme court cases in the second edition provide a solid accessible foundation for understanding civil liability law and its impact on policing operations and management this convenient resource also includes a brief review of the basics of judicial reasoning and a short introduction on how to brief cases these materials and the discussion questions at the end of each section help readers understand the process of legal inquiry and analysis and the changing nature of police civil liability law an excellent complement to kappeler's text critical issues in police civil liability fourth edition international organizations are increasingly operating across borders and engaging in legal transactions in virtually all jurisdictions this makes familiarity with the applicable law and practice imperative for both international organizations and those who engage in legal relations with them furthermore the issue of whether how and to what extent domestic courts take into account decisions of foreign and international courts and tribunals in their own decision making has become increasingly important in recent years this book provides a comprehensive empirical study of this transnational judicial dialogue focusing on the law and practice of domestic jurisdictions concerning the legal personality privileges and immunities of international organizations it presents a selection of detailed country by country studies examining the manner of judicial dialogue across domestic jurisdictions and between national and international courts the approach taken in this book intersects with three highly topical areas of international legal scholarship the rapidly evolving law of international institutions the burgeoning research into the role of domestic courts in the international legal system and the recent rise of empirically oriented legal scholarship utilizing oup's international law in domestic courts database the book presents analysis of little known cases which have real international significance illustrating the impact and extent of transnational judicial dialogue in the international legal system the book provides important perspectives on the evolution and status of the law of immunity of international organizations and contributes to the understanding of relationships between national courts and between national and international courts claim making the everyday strategies through which citizens pursue rights fulfilment is often overlooked in studies of political behavior which tend to focus on highly visible pivotal moments elections mass protests high court decisions legislative decisions but what of the politics of the everyday this element takes up this question drawing together research from colombia south africa india and mexico the authors argue that claim making is a distinct form of citizenship practice characterized by its everyday nature which is neither fully programmatic nor clientelistic and which is prevalent in settings marked by gaps between the state's de jure commitments to rights and their de facto realization under these conditions claim making is both meaningful there are rights to be secured and necessary fulfilment is far from guaranteed claim making of this kind is of critical consequence both materially and politically with the potential to shape how citizens engage or disengage the state a brief chronological digest of all points determined in the decisions of the supreme court with notes showing the influence following and present authority of each case as disclosed by the citations comprising all citing cases in
