Slow Man 2005 at four o clock in the morning everybody in the tent was still asleep exhausted by the terrible march of the previous day the hummocky ice and pressure ridges that bennett had foreseen had at last been met with and though camp had been broken at six o clock and though men and dogs had hauled and tugged and wrestled with the heavy sledges until five o clock in the afternoon only a mile and a half had been covered but though the progress was slow it was yet progress it was not the harrowing heart breaking immobility of those long months aboard the freja every yard to the southward though won at the expense of a battle with the ice brought them nearer to wrangel island and ultimate safety then too at supper time the unexpected had happened bennett moved no doubt by their weakened condition had dealt out extra rations to each man one and two thirds ounces of butter and six and two thirds ounces of aleuronate bread a veritable luxury after the unvarying diet of pemmican lime juice and dried potatoes of the past fortnight the men had got into their sleeping bags early and until four o clock in the morning had slept profoundly inert stupefied almost without movement but a few minutes after four o clock bennett awoke he was usually up about half an hour before the others on the day before he had been able to get a meridian altitude of the sun and was anxious to complete his calculations as to the expedition s position on the chart that he had begun in the evening

Mortal Man 2021-10-29 a fiction within a fiction a labyrinthine edifice of funny mournful and harrowing meditations on the fatal impasse between a man and a woman my life as a man is roth s most blistering novel at its heart lies the marriage of peter and maureen tarnopol a gifted young writer and the woman who wants to be his muse but who instead is his nemesis their union is based on fraud and shored up by moral blackmail but it is so perversely durable that long after maureen s death peter is still trying and failing to write his way free of it out of desperate inventions and cauterizing truths acts of weakness tenderheartedness and shocking cruelty philip roth creates a work worthy of strindberg a fierce tragedy of sexual need and blindness

To be a Man 2020 this powerful original and above all unpredictable novel pits wilfred barclay a famous but failing british novelist against rick l tucker an obscure american academic whose escape from scholarly oblivion hinges on becoming the barclay man biographer editor of the posthumous papers and the recognized authority barclay s slide into destructive drinking marital failure and middle aged lust is alternately pandered to and documented by the indefatigable tucker locked in a lethal relationship of mutual dependence the two men totter on the brink of physical emotional and spiritual chasms their hatred of each other and themselves growing as they lose their wives their self respect and their illusions golding s deceptively comic touch heightens the stunning impact of a climax that is as inevitable as it is unexpected
