there are many forms of liturgy in the contemporary church but they are not always critically assessed liturgy can be viewed as a sealed encounter in which behind closed doors heaven and earth meet and participate in each other but it can also be viewed as an exercise in acceptance of the world outside where critical assessment is neglected in favor of socio political engagement for what passes as ethical on the world stage but true liturgy writes dr noordmans is accomplished in the full consciousness of sin and the sacrifice by which that sin is dealt with there can then be no unquestioned acceptance of the world by the same token there is no turning away from the world in an otherworldly flight to transcendence there is only the critical confrontation with ourselves and the world around us in the liturgy which as the apostle paul emphasizes takes place not behind church walls so much as in the field of the world matthew 13 38 the liturgy is restrained by the eschatological realizations of original sin and the death and resurrection of the savior as contained in the sacraments and the word can then operate in the field of the world as it ought to reformed liturgy as it has come down through the ages is dr noordmans is convinced a reflection of these realities and only such a liturgy can do justice to the gospel

the word theology means the science of god this science has god not only for its subject but also for its source and its object hence the divine character of theology cannot better be described than by the old formula theology teaches about god is taught by god and leads to god theology may be taken objectively as doctrine or subjectively as knowledge but it is not every knowledge of divine doctrine especially not the mere apprehension of it that is called theology the term is restricted to scientific knowledge and consequently theology in its technical sense is the scientific exposition of the doctrine concerning god and things divine aeterna press this work comes at an opportune hour a time in which many complain that contemporary theology lacks a general theory of sacraments chauvet charts a reorientation in sacramental theology from the scholastic treatments which appropriated the metaphysical categories of causality and substance to develop an essentially instrumentalist appreciation of grace in favor of an approach through the category of symbol in this approach the subject is as much grasped and transformed by the symbolic representation as is the object being interpreted chauvet commands a wealth of scholarship which he deploys to powerful effect his work in developing a foundational theology of sacramentality will remain the standard for years to come
